Mr. Scarrow-"I would go to bed in the dark rather than run in debt for a candle." Mr. Lacey's remarks on the amalgamation question were similar to what appear-Mr. D. C. Macdonald said Mr. Scarrow, in going over the financial statements, agreed with what he stated on Friday. Mr. Scarrow had asked for improvements, and he had got them. He rode one horse in the city and another over here, but as Mr. Scarrow said, this village could not be run for 18 or 20 mills on the dollar. He thought the village had been run as cheaply as could be, only he thought that too much money had been spent by the Board of Works. The rest of Mr. Macdonald's
