

A WELCOME TO THE DOMINION

Leader of Opposition Makes Fitting Reference to Prince's Arrival.

GOVERNOR OF NOVA SCOTIA

New York Life Insurance Expert Reaches Ottawa to Aid Commissioners.

OTTAWA, March 27.—Harvey Hall, parliamentary representative of the railway orders, received today from the various boards a stack of papers to questions regarding Hon. Mr. Fitzpatrick's Lord's Day bill. Every lodge and division was emphatically opposed to the measure.

The royal commission on insurance will resume business tomorrow, Judge McTavish and Mr. Shepley, K. C., returned today from New York, and although neither gentlemen would indicate the object of their visit, your correspondent can positively state that they have secured the services of Mr. Dawson, the famous insurance actuary, who was chiefly instrumental in eliciting the facts in connection with the proceedings before the legislature at Albany. The commission will conclude its work in Ottawa this week and will then meet in Montreal. Mr. Dawson will not be able to join the commission for a week or ten days. Hon. Sydney Fisher learned a lesson in the house today, a lesson which the opposition have been pounding into him for ten years past. He tried to railroad through the committee an item of eighteen thousand dollars for the re-organization of the Canadian exhibit at the Imperial Institute, London. The opposition asked for a report and Mr. Fisher dodged the question and was chaffed about obstructing his own estimate. Finally, after trying to shirk the issue, Mr. Fisher consented to bring down a report and then the item passed.

A. H. Low, the well known Canadian traveler and geologist, has been appointed director of the geological survey in Canada. Official confirmation of the report is withheld until tomorrow. Hon. Mr. Scott, admitted in the senate tonight that he would not be surprised to hear of Mr. Low's appointment. It is said that the Bell, who has been in the position for some time, will be asked to resign.

Judge D. C. Fraser, of the supreme court of Nova Scotia and the former member for Guysborough in the Commons, today was appointed to succeed Mr. Jones in the province in succession to Jones. It has taken the government a long time to find a suitable man, but at last they have succeeded. Lawrence M. P. Colchester, will probably secure the vacant judgeship.

Prince of Connaught's Arrival. In the Commons tonight Mr. Borden, leader of the opposition, made a graceful reference to the arrival in Canada of Prince Arthur of Connaught. He said his highness was returning from an Imperial mission to Japan. The prince, accompanied by his wife, the Princess Louise, arrived in Canada by a treaty, and he would find in this Dominion a people proud of their resources and inspired with a determined desire to develop them to the utmost. He would receive a loyal, hearty welcome from Canada and when he left these shores he would leave behind him the sincere tribute of affection to his gracious majesty the King, who had done so much since he ascended the throne as to inspire in the hearts of his subjects a devotion among the citizens of this country. (Prolonged cheers from both sides of the house.)

St. John, N. B., March 27.—Thomas Palmer, one of the officers of the C. P. R. steamer Montezuma, fell from the deck of the steamer while on duty at a distance of twenty-eight feet. His skull is fractured and death is expected as a result.

AGED MAN'S DESPONDENCY. Committed Suicide at Niagara Hotel by Shooting Himself. Niagara Falls, Ont., March 27.—Major James Tattersall, 79 years old, killed himself last evening at the hotel Lafayette, where he had been night clerk for the past year, by shooting himself through the head. Despondency, old age and condition in life are given as cause.

AN OFFICIAL ACCOUNT. Washington Authorities Receive Report of Recent Fight. Washington, March 26.—The official account of the fight with the Pulajanes on the island of Samar was received at the war office today from Governor-General M. P. de Luna, as follows: "Saturday morning, March 24th, Governor Curry had arranged to receive the surrender of remaining Pulajanes and the leaders and one hundred Pulajanes, with fourteen guns, presented themselves. Immediately before the surrender was to occur the Pulajanes leader signalled and all made a bold rush. Judge Lohinger and the district school inspector escaped in one direction and Curry in another, swimming the river and escaped in the brush. Other Americans safe. The constabulary lost fifteen killed, wounded and missing and some guns were lost. Thirty Pulajanes were buried. Pulajanes were pursued. Curry was lost thirty-six hours, and was rescued in a boat. He withdraws application for leave of absence and proposes to finish the pacification.

REPORTS NATIVES IN THE PROVINCE actively assisting him. Each found jealous to exterminate Pulajanes."

LONDON'S FIERCE RODENTS.

Large Rat Attacks Waiting Passenger and Lacerates Her Face.

London, March 27.—While waiting for a train in Grand Trunk railway waiting room here, a woman was attacked by a large rat. The rodent sprang on her lap and when she attempted to knock it off the animal seized her by her lower lip and apparently could not resist until a by-stander seized it by the throat and forced it to let go. The woman's lip is badly torn and the front of her dress is torn to shreds.

ALGECIRAS CONFERENCE.

Good Progress Made at the Session Yesterday.

Algeciras, March 26.—The delegates generally are satisfied with the results of today's sitting and believe that the result is no longer doubtful. The Duke of Almodovar, president of the conference, stated that a formidable obstacle exists in the way of accord. Of the principal points for final arrangement, that regarding the outcome of ports presents the greatest difficulty, while the greatest variance relates to the inspector, whom the Germans desire to be almost entirely independent of the conference. The intermediary of an inspector-general, although not responsible to the Sultan, France objects to the double authority, pointing out that the inspector-general would be an ordinary diplomatic channel should the conditions of the mandate be improperly fulfilled. The German delegates insist that they foresee danger unless the inspector reports directly to the powers.

MOROCCAN OFFICER'S OPINION.

London, March 26.—While expressing difference of opinion on the question of the Moroccan police through the intermediary of an inspector-general, the Moroccan officer here considers it inconceivable that this can prevent the Algeciras agreement. France has consistently contended that the inspector-general should report to the Sultan, and it is believed that some compromise will be reached, such as agreeing that the inspector should report to both the Sultan and the diplomatic corps. On the whole, the British officials consider that the agreement is possible.

GOVERNOR OF NOVA SCOTIA.

Judge D. C. Fraser Accepts Vacant Gubernatorial Office.

Halifax, N. S., March 27.—Judge D. C. Fraser, formerly member for Guysborough in the Commons, today was appointed to succeed Mr. Jones in the province in succession to Jones. It has taken the government a long time to find a suitable man, but at last they have succeeded. Lawrence M. P. Colchester, will probably secure the vacant judgeship.

MONTREALER FOR VANCOUVER.

Attache of French Consulate Appointed to Position in West.

Montreal, March 27.—L. Duchastel de Montreuil, who has been for some time attached to the Consulate General in France in Montreal, has received the appointment of French consul at Vancouver and will leave for that city in a few days. He will have the honor of presenting the French flag at the salute, as did his suite, following him from the gangway. The Prince walked with the venerable lieutenant-governor, and the young nephew of His Majesty, a boyish erect figure with a carefully turned mustache, who is 23 years of his credit, being marked. H. R. H. was in a plainer uniform than he wore in Japan, wearing a white frock coat, a full dress, shako and cape of the Royal Hussars. Admiral Seymour and General Kelly-Kenny were more conspicuous in the first twenty-one days that he has aided history in the making, the former having seen considerable service in the Boer war, and the latter notable marks against the Boers to relieve the Peking legations, the latter with a record of war service in many lands, and a noted Chinese officer and other campaigns to that of South Africa. Both the distinguished naval officer and the venerable military officer, carefully turned mustache, who is 23 years of his credit, being marked. H. R. A revenue tariff, extension of the boundary of the province northward, and better terms from the Dominion. Tomorrow the platform will be presented and a leader chosen to take the place of Hon. C. J. THE LEGAL ADVICE.

Question as to Grand Jury Raised in New York.

New York, March 27.—District Attorney Jerome reported to Judge O'Sullivan today that each member of the grand jury has received a telegram from a New York paper inquiring whether the jury was intended to be guided in investigating the insurance matters by the advice of Judge O'Sullivan or by the advice of District Attorney Jerome. Judge Jerome declared that he had no advice in the matter but thought the judge might want to charge the jury on it. The judge was absolutely out of the pale of the court's jurisdiction and Mr. Jerome left the court room.

The prince, in military uniform, and Col. Trotter in scarlet of the governor general's foot-guards, his military right hand on the hilt of his sword, and his left hand on the hilt of his sword, stood waiting until the flag-draped gangway was in place.

Where the Ship Lay

must be nearly half a mile, and for a large portion of the distance Japanese spectators lined both sides; whilst abreast of the ship a space had been reserved for English residents. A guard of blue-jackets from the Asahi in command of a post captain; and the band of the Asahi, in brilliant scarlet uniform, with nodding white plumes, formed an imposing guard.

The Prince walked slowly down, escorted by a brilliant staff of Japanese officials, and accompanying the party also was the ambassador, Sir Claude Macdonald, and the English attaches and consuls.

In addition to viewing at close quarters the Garter mission, it was a unique opportunity for the man in the street to get a sight of the most celebrated of the world's great names, whose names have been so prominently before the world during the last two years. They stood in a body on the quay as the Empress steamed away, their uniforms covered with gold lace, their breasts bedecked with orders and medals which glittered in the sun.

You will be enabled thereby, from now on, to follow the real names of the resources and possibilities of the vast country which forms the greater part of the continent of North America, and to visit the flourishing and opulent cities of eastern Canada.

We beg, however, to assure Your Royal Highness—and we trust that you will understand us as well as His Most Gracious Majesty the King; that in no part of this Dominion, or of his world-wide possessions, will you find any which, in your extended journey, your feet may rest, will be found those whose attachment to his throne and person is so deep, and whose loyalty to his Majesty is so sincere, as the residents of the city of Victoria.

It is sincerely hoped that Your Royal Highness, on your visit to this Dominion, will be sufficiently long to enable you to form such favorable and lasting impressions of the resources and possibilities of the vast country which forms the greater part of the continent of North America, and to visit the flourishing and opulent cities of eastern Canada.

WELLINGTON J. DOWLER

Clerk of the Municipal Council.

His Royal Highness, in a firm, clear voice, with perfect enunciation, read the following reply: "I thank you, Mr. Mayor and Gentlemen: It is no ordinary feelings of gratification which I feel as I stand before you, in the performance of the important mission with which I have been entrusted by His Majesty the King, and which I have the honor to perform in your name. I am deeply indebted to you for the warm and friendly reception which I have received from you and your people. I am sure that you will all be glad to hear that I am at home again."

The prince, in military uniform, and Col. Trotter in scarlet of the governor general's foot-guards, his military right hand on the hilt of his sword, and his left hand on the hilt of his sword, stood waiting until the flag-draped gangway was in place.

WARRANTS OUT FOR ARREST

Contributions to Campaign Fund Gets Republican Bosses Into Trouble.

NEW YORK, March 27.—District Attorney Jerome today appeared before Magistrate Moss in the Tombs police court and applied for warrants to be used in testing the legality of the contributions of insurance companies' funds to political campaign committees. The names of no person or persons were mentioned at the time. After listening to Mr. Jerome, the magistrate stated that before he would issue any warrants, evidence would have to be presented that a crime had been committed. To establish this evidence Mr. Jerome asked for the issuance of a number of subpoenas in blank form, to be used in "John Doe" proceedings before the magistrate. Late today these subpoenas were issued. It was said at the Tombs police court that the effort would be made to get the proceedings under way tomorrow. All the evidence at the disposal of the district attorney, and which would be presented to the court, and then it will remain with the magistrate as to whether or not the warrants shall be issued.

WARRANTS FOR PROMINENT CITIZENS

Mr. Jerome asked Justice Sullivan if he would not, sitting as a magistrate, issue a warrant for the arrest of George W. Perkins, former vice-president of the New York Life Insurance Company, in order that a writ of habeas corpus might be obtained and the matter taken at once to the highest court. Mr. Jerome also suggested that if contributing to political committees by officers of the insurance companies constituted larceny, the matter involved Chairman George B. Cortelyou, an insurance salesman, and Bliss of the Republican national campaign committee in a matter of receiving stolen goods.

Justice Sullivan declined to act in the case, saying there were plenty of magistrates' courts before which the matter could be taken. Later Magistrate Moss issued the Blank Subpoenas requested by District Attorney Jerome, and he examined Darwin Kingsley, vice-president of the New York Life Insurance Company. Edmond D. Randolph, treasurer of the National Association of the New York Life Insurance in the district attorney's office this afternoon. It was stated tonight that Kingsley had agreed to appear at the proceedings tomorrow. Magistrate Moss said concerning the matter: "Mr. Jerome came to me and asked me to issue a warrant for the arrest of several persons, and I told him very frankly that if a crime had been committed, he would have to tell me about it. I could be done by deposition, and he agreed to submit them to me. The matter is now in my hands, and as mentioned at that time."

The grand jury has not asked Mr. Jerome for any further evidence in the case beyond what he had furnished the jury several days ago.

DISPENSE WITH WOMEN CHOIR

Movement in Catholic of United States in of Change.

A movement is on foot in the Catholic churches of the United States to dispense with women's voice choirs and to do away with the despatch from Omaha says: vocal and instrumental, are insisted from the altar. From the altar of the Omaha diocese and women are to be dispensed in choirs. These changes are being made in order to conform to the instructions of the Pope. In submitting the rule, the Pope said he had acted in consideration of the fact that the organ alone is exempted from the prohibition against the instruction of the congregation in children and adults, is recommended in this connection the Pope, who, several months ago, issued the instruction. The Pope of the Gregorian chant, simple music, rather than the style of the organ, is recommended to the sacredness of the church. In Portland the change in choirs will probably be made in St. Francis' church, on the side, the plain chant has been used, and the boys have been used. Mr. Goodrich has been instructed. In the churches across the country the boys is of a very high order of music. The change in the choir, to a large extent, adopted the music by men and in Paris all the churches are composed of boys. In St. Mary's cathedral, morning that it would double the number of the church choir, it will not be an effort to train a large number of boys in a few years. The plain chant appears easy to learn, but it is difficult. From the altar, the boys are given out today that it will time before any change will be made in the church choir. The boys in Gregorian chant, with the boys in the choir, but it will be several years before it will be fully realized.
