

OUT AT RENO. A Railway Meeting at which Plans were Used with Murders Effect. Reno, Nev., Sept. 27.—A stockholders' meeting of the Nevada and Oregon railway was held to-day for the purpose of outlining some directors. Frank Fowler stated that it was a stockholders' meeting, and requested all others to retire. No one moved. He pointed to ex-Judge E. D. Whittier and Jas. Maclean of San Francisco and treasurer Corbin of Carson, and told them if they did not go out they would be put out. They remained and a rush was made. They were drawn and fired rapidly. S. C. Scovill, secretary, and D. W. Walsh of San Francisco were wounded fatally.

A RISE IN WHEAT. Great Activity in Chicago and Milwaukee Yesterday—Why the Advance? CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—The prices of wheat were higher to-day than for several years. Prices on call, compared with Saturday's closings, were seven cents higher, and compared with the closing on regular board, four to five cents higher. The advance was attributed by some to a corner; by others to the fact that everybody is buying. There seemed to be more buying in Chicago and Milwaukee, to which city 22,000 bushels of wheat were shipped at a profit.

POLICE PARAGRAPHS. Michael John and James Welch, two brothers, charged with stone-throwing, were each fined $1 or four days. A girl named Emma Bonds was detained at the central station last night on a charge of vagrancy preferred by her mother. Matilda Brailer was arrested last evening and lodged in No. 2 station for stealing a pair of pants and other articles from Samuel Snyburg, No. 10 Queen street west.

John Teef, Simon Dean and John Beresford were charged by Samuel Collins with larceny. Teef and Dean were discharged. Beresford was sent to goal for thirty days. Margaret Smith of Duane street yesterday stole a pair of shoes from the daughter of Mr. Charles Cornish on the street. The little one was bringing the dress home from the laundry. Nellie Foy went to visit Jessie Dettans, at No. 4 Dale street, but forgot herself and got obstreperous. She smashed the front windows and a few chairs. Jessie called in the police and had Miss Foy removed to No. 2 station for the night.

Sarah Morrison, Maggie Burns, Elsie Willis and Minnie Lee pleaded not guilty to being inmates of a disorderly house kept by Anne Thompson on York street. Florence Lee pleaded guilty to the same charge. They were all remanded until to-day. Ann Jane Murray, who had been accused of being drunk and collecting a crowd near the Rossin house. She asked for another chance. Her worshiping mother would make her comfortable for the winter, and sent her to the reformatory for six months. John McKill, an ex-privet, was charged with being drunk. He said that he would make the constable testify that when arrested he was so drunk that he could not remember the name and mon. He was an inmate of the house of providence, and pleaded to be discharged. The court remanded him until the 5th inst. in order to make inquiries about him.

FIRE AND GAS NOTES. An application has been received for a gas lamp, in front of the new St. Luke's church at St. Vincent and St. Joseph streets. Referred to Ald. Kent and Chief Ashfield. A new lamp will be erected before the Jarvis street Baptist church, and one of the present ones will be removed to another position, thus affording sufficient light to the corner.

The pay sheet of the fire department for September amounts to $24,766. It was passed by the committee to-day, as also was Mr. Knowlton's account for horses for $42,70, as per contract. They want a fire alarm box at Walling, ton place and Brock street, and Ald. Boustead said there was one at Brock and King streets, which was near enough. Mr. Ashfield will report on the question of the new alarm box. Ald. Kent got a motion passed for Mr. Ashfield to report whether the lamps on Elizabeth street cannot be arranged so that a lamp could be suspended from the street and another one for Higginson street.

An account was submitted from Frank Forsyth, a fishman at the Bay street wharf, for work done in repairing a hoisting crane. Ald. Bell thought it was wrong to give work to members of the brigade. Ald. Bousfield pointed out that other men did work about the wharf, such as painting, and got nothing for it. Ald. Taylor agreed with Ald. Bell on the question of principle, and the general opinion of the committee was against continuing the practice in the future. The account passed. The question of sending fire engines and men to assist at fires in neighboring wards came up for discussion before the committee yesterday afternoon. It was reported that an engine and two members of the brigade had gone to the Grosvenor fire, at the request of the manager of the Toronto and Nipissing railway. Mr. Gooderham wrote thinking the charge was for the firemen's benevolent fund, and added a few lines. "Not such a large sum," he said, "but it will perhaps occur in the next." So the matter dropped.

ONGOODS HALL NOTES. Mr. R. Smith, Stratford, one of the newly appointed, queen's counsel for Ontario, was called within the hall yesterday. In the case of Friendly v. Carter, notice of trial was given for the present assizes and afterwards countermanded by the plaintiff. The master decided that under the judgment act there was no provision for this. The case was appealed to Mr. Justice Osher, who yesterday reversed the judgment. The application for an injunction to restrain the carrying out of the agreement between the Toronto, Grey and Ben. and Grand Trunk railways came up before the chancellor, and was adjourned for two weeks. Mr. Cassels' papers for the case were filed. Mr. Martin, Q.C., for the Toronto, Grey and Ben.

The weather was rather warm at Danzig Friday, so that instead of wearing his boiler-iron, overcoat, the czar simply wore a sheet-iron suit while conferring with the good old Emperor William.
