The justices of the Queen's Bench Division on Saturdaygave judgment at Osgoode Hall affirming the conviction of the Chatham murderer, Benjamin McMahon, who was tried at the last Kent Assizes before Mr. Justice Rose and sentenced to be hanged on Dec. 18.

McMahon and Quirk were charged with the murder of Thomas Holton, and at the two years of the chatham of the murder of Thomas Holton, and at the two years of the chatham of the murder of Thomas Holton, and at the two years of the deputation for their kind words, and statement made by the deceased to a witness named Moris, to whom he went for assistance after being shot and at whose house he subsequently died.

**Mr. H. Dawson, St. Mary's, writes. 'Hour decessed the Mayor. Messrs. Hamilton and Gurney also made addresses. Mr. Elias Rogers then addressed the Mayor. He said: My presence here, Mr. Mayor, is reparable. He sufficient evidence that you have my support in the coming contest. But perhaps I may be permitted to say that while I do not by any means regard you as absolutely perfect, still if I had known you to be as good a man as you have proved to be I would not have contested the election of 1888. Since then you have my support in the world in wy opinion, should you be elected, we have a right to expect something even better from you than we have yet seen. The Mayor, in reply, thanked the members of the deputation of their kind words, and said he was greatly gratified that his conduct as mayor had the endorsation of so prominent a delegation. Since he had been mayor he had tried to do his best, with a single eye to the best interests of the city. They would kindly excuse him making a speech just then, but he would

The Common Pleas Divisional Court on Saturday gave judgment on the appeal of Joseph Hamilton from the judgment at the trial dismissing his action against Warden Massie of the Central Prison for having had him arrested for conveying tobacco to a prisoner; and also the appeal of Detective McGrath from the judgment obtained by Hamilton against him for $200 damages for handcuffing the latter and conveying him to the police station in that way when it was unnecessary to do so.

Both appeals are dismissed, the court holding that Hamilton's offence was one for which he was properly arrested, and also holding that Detective McGrath exceeded his duty in handcuffing the prisoner, when, as in this case, it was not necessary to do so in order to secure his arrest. Are constantly exposed to danger from Colds, Whooping Cough, Croup, and diseases peculiar to the throat and lungs. For such ailments, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, promptly administered, affords speedy relief and cure. tered, affords speedy relief and cure.

As a remedy for Whooping Cough, with which many of our children were afflicted, we used, during the past winter, with much satisfaction, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. For this affection, we consider this preparation the most efficacious of all the medicines which have come to our knowledge.—Mary Parkhurst, Preceptress, Home for Little Wanderers, Doncaster, Md.

My children have been peculiarly subject to attacks of Croup, and I failed to find any effective remedy until I commenced administering Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. This preparation relieves the difficulty of breathing and invariably cures the complaint.—David G. Starks, Chatham, Columbia Co., N. Y.

I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral Chatham, Columbia Co., N. Y.

I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my fámily for many years, and have found it especially valuable in Whooping Cough. This medicine allays all irritation, prevents inflammation from extending to the lungs, and quickly subdues any tendency to Lung Complaint.

J. B. Wellington, Plainville, Mich. I find no medicine so effective, for Croup and Whooping Cough, as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It was the means of saving the life of my little boy, only six months old, carrying him safely through the worst case of Whooping Cough I ever saw.—Jane Malone, Piney Flats, Tenn.
