C. C. Robinson, Registrar of Court. The members were called in and on a division the bill was defeated, 52 to 80, Mr. Mack and Mr. Balfour voting with the Opposition.

Mr. Creighton's Bill Follows Suit.

Mr. Creighton then moved the second reading of his bill respecting the Education Department. The present statute provides Department. The present statute provines that in case the Legislative Assembly at the said session, or, if the session does not continue for three weeks after the said regulation or order-in-council is laid before the House, then at the ensuing session, if the Legislature disapproves by resolution of such regulation or order-in-council, either wholly or of any part thereof, the regulation or order-in-council, so far as disapproved of, shall have no effect from the time of such resolution being passed.

said Mr. Mowat when he rose to opposite bill.

"A wail," suggested Mr. Meredith.
The cost of the registry offices was really not worth a moment's thought, the Premier went on to say, that is, in comparison with the advantages.

The bill was declared lost on division.

Mr. Ostrom withdrew his bill to amend the act respecting joint stock companies for supplying cities, towns and villages with gas and water.

Mr. Ingram's bill respecting the relations be ween employers and workmen was leaded to pass its second reading and go to a special committee.

Mr. Fell's bill to amend the Free G ants and Homestewis Act was withdrawn.

The motion for the second reading of Mr.

Knox Students at Dinner. The students of Knox College held their annual dinner last hight in the college and the fact that examinations are over, and that classical and theological text books, for the present at least, are laid aside, did not lessen the zest with which the boys enjoyed themselves. Mr. Neil Shaw presided and among the guests were Rev. A. R. Barron, Rev. R. Hamilton and Rev. R. McNair. Notes of the Schools.

The kindergarten classes in Louisa-street school will open next week.

Mr. Brodericks, principal of the public school at Lindsay, Ont., is in the city studying our system of teaching primary reading.
