higher but added that the advance had toleed business. The effect was discouraging to holders, and although the opening prices were up to Saturday's close the firmness did not last long. Indian shipments for the week were erroneously put at 2,060,000 bushels and this precipitated a break to 97c for May, but the market railied smartly when correction came reducing quantity to 220,000 bushels, and late private cables coming in stronger induced good buying for investment. Closing cables lacked animation, the visible increased more than had been expected. Clearances were small. Northwestern stocks increased about two million. Liverpool said the demand was freely supplied, and the pressure to sell carried the price down to 98%c. Some good parties bought liberally under 97c, closing market at '97%c. There was better feeling when bell tapped. The disinchination of foreign holders to add largely to their supplies and increasing stocks here are weak features. Chicago stocks are now about 11,000,000, including private elevators, and the aggregate stocks at Minnea and sold for cash or margin.

Counselman & Day to J.J. Dixon: We anticipate an improved export wheat demand at the decline audi advise purchases on weak spots. Corn was depressed under sales for near deliveries by receivers. Cables were lower for spot and futures, and the weather here unfavorable for holding shelled corn. May is getting cheap enough to look for an upturn in it. Provisions had a brilliant array of local talent against them at opening and several small holders were shaken out. Later reports from stock yards quoted hops five cents higher and packers estimate receipts for week considerably reduced, causing an active buying demand and market closed firm with look of further recovery.

Guff From Gotham,

Henry Allen to J. J. Dixon & Co: There has been feverishness in to-day's market and some conspicuous stocks have been marked up. Richmond Terminal has advanced couple of points; new people are being admitted to the board of directors and a syndicate to finance the property without a stock assessment is being organized. meanwhile the insiders are pretty sure to lockey with the stock at their own sweet will. Chicago gas hangs sullenly around sixty-six and though the air is full of bull points people close to the property have been advised to be patient about taking on a new load of the stock. The grangers have been sold by people who bought lower and are realizing profit. Vanderbilt tips are abuadant; extra dividends to be declared this week form the text for most of this. New Missouri Pacific bonds are hinted at,

John A. Grant, hotelkeeper, Vankleek Hill, has W. J. Montgomery, tailor, Port Arthur, has assigned to his creditors.

G. S. Tickell & Son, furniture dealers, Belleville, who assigned some weeks ago, have compromised at 70c on the dollar.

J. L. Smith, cheese and implement maker, Micksburg, Ont., formerly of Forester's Mills, has assigned to P. Larmouth, Ottawa.

J. L. Vineberg, the insolvent clothier of Sherbrooke, who recently assigned to Gault Bros., the Canadian tweed firm, owes $15,976.

Day & Deblois, foundrymen of Montreal, are asking an extension of 18 months from their creditors. Their affairs show a nominal surplus of $30,000. 330,000.

T. J. Spink. tinware dealer. Toronto, has been sold out by the bailin, but through the intervention of a friend will resume business again. He compromised in 1886 at 25c on dollar. compromised in 1886 at 25c on dollar.

H. Vineberg, wholesale clothier, Montreal, whose failure was first announced in this column last week, is a son of the Sherbrooke debtor. His liabilities amount to $31,000. Last July he bought in the insolvent stock of Burnet & Co. at 40c. in cash cash.

G. J. Carter, shoe dealer, Deseronto, has been singularly unfortunate in business. Last March he is said to have claimed a surplus of $2000 after a previous failure in Trenton. He is now offering to compromise with his creditors. It was the foreclosure of a mortgage made on a financial squeeze last March that has caused the present assignment of E. A. Carincross. He is an old established storekeeper at Shakespeare, Ont., and nine months ago, when paying a composition of 40 cents, showed liabilities $31,000 and assets $24,000. Ellen A. King, trading as King & Wilson, fur-niture dealers, Owen Sound, has assigned to Campbell & May. A meeting of creditors has been called for next Monday. He owes about $7000 and his assets nominally the same.

To Whom it May Concern. Editor World: A few days ago we called together the creditors of R. Kennedy, jr., who as-signed some time in 1889 to one George Ander-son. The meeting was called to see what steps son. The meeting was called to see what steps could be taken in his estate, as it had never been wound up, and affairs were in a very unsatisfactory state. It seems now that there is another R. Kennedy doing business at the same number, 313 King-street west. Fearing lest this gentleman's name should get mixed up in the report of the meeting, we deem it only justice to Mr. Kennedy, No. 2, who is now doing business at 313 King-street west, to state that he is not in any way connected with the meeting called at our office. Yours truly,
