

GOOD WILL IS OUR GREATEST ASSET

Our present position as funeral directors is due almost entirely to winning and holding the good will of our hundreds of patrons. Personal recommendation of one family to another has made and maintained our business. There must be a reason for our standing with the public. One word describes it: SERVICE.

The "Fly" Cop

HERE we have I. Knockem Dead, the fearless fly hunter, with his famous Flyosan fly gun. Mr. Dead takes considerable credit himself but it is really Flyosan that flies fear. Flies just can't stand Flyosan. A few sprays of this wonderful non-poisonous liquid will clear any room of flies inside of five minutes.

Flyosan's pleasant aromatic odor quickly disappears when a room is aired. It will not stain. It kills practically every kind of insect pest such as mosquitoes, roaches, bedbugs, ants, moths and lice.

Get a can today. A complete outfit containing a pint of Flyosan and sprayer costs only $1.00.

CLAIM PART OF SPRINGER ESTATE

The Shaw Family of Watford State They are Direct Descendants

The descendants of the late Dorman Shaw who died here some years ago, John W. Shaw, Henry Shaw, Mr. W. Phair and Mrs. Arthur Dixon have entered a claim as heirs in the estate of the late Christopher Springer of Wilmington, Delaware, which is estimated at from fifty to five hundred million dollars. The grounds on which they claim they are entitled to participate in the division of the estate is their descent from Dorman Shaw, whose mother's mother was the daughter of Elizabeth Springer, whose father was David Springer, the son of the owner of the estate.

Dorman Shaw, who died some years ago here, would have been the direct heir to the estate had not the estate become void for some time owing to the complications of a 99 years' lease. At the time of his death he is alleged to have said that he could still prove his title to the estate and advised those related to him to safeguard their rights by record for the time when the estate should be again cleared of all legal entanglements.

Others of the family are residing in Owassa, Detroit and London.

The Sarnia ferries moved 2000 autos across the river Saturday and Sunday last.

Mrs. Duncan A. Graham who conducted a millinery store in Strathroy died last week. She leaves a husband and one son to mourn her loss.

Geo. Taylor's residence, Wallaceburg, was entered Wednesday night while the family were at the theater and several pieces of jewelry and money were stolen. There is no clue. Constable Peters of Chatham is on the job.
