

CONTENTS.

9

CHAPTER XVI.

| | PAGE |
|--|------|
| Popular Excitement and Sympathy—Attempt to Assassinate Mackenzie—Conviction of Kerr—Journey to England—Procures the Dismissal of the Crown Officers—Tories threaten to Revolt—Revisits Scotland—Returns to Canada..... | 244 |

CHAPTER XVII.

| | |
|--|-----|
| Third Expulsion—Re-elected—House refuses to receive him—Another election—Forcibly ejected—New writ refused—Proceedings expunged from the Journals... | 288 |
|--|-----|

CHAPTER XVIII.

| | |
|--|-----|
| York changed to Toronto—Mackenzie First Mayor—Cholera of 1834—Braves Disease and Death—Canadian Alliance Society—Loss of his Eldest Son—Mackenzie as a Journalist..... | 312 |
|--|-----|

CHAPTER XIX.

| | |
|---|-----|
| Meeting of the New House—Hume's Letters—Grievance Committee—Read by the King—Mackenzie appointed Director of the Welland Canal—Disclosures—Hinck's Career—Visit to Papineau—Letter to Hume..... | 324 |
|---|-----|

CHAPTER XX.

| | |
|--|-----|
| Sir Francis Bond Head arrives—His Speech—Censured—Troubles—Separation from England—Stoppage of Supplies and Reservation of Money Bills—Dissolution of the House—Violent means to carry Elections—Mackenzie loses his Election—Dangerous Illness..... | 355 |
|--|-----|

CHAPTER XXI.

| | |
|---|-----|
| The Constitution —Mock Trial of Sir F. B. Head—Samuel Lount—Fatal Resolutions—Session of 1836, 7—Its turbulent Close—Mackenzie goes to New York—Purchases at Trade Sales of Books..... | 390 |
|---|-----|