DIOCESE OF HURON.

The next meeting of the Church Society of the Diocese of Huron, will be held on Thursday, the 8th of September, in St. Paul's School House, London, at seven o'clock p.m.

By order,
J. WALKER MARSH,
Sec. C. S. D. of H.

August, 30th 1859.

The Lord Bishop of Huron visited Crosshill, Wellesley, County of Waterloo, on Sunday, the 31st of July. Divine Service commenced at 10 o'clock in the morning, in the Town Hall, where the congregation meets for public worship, there being as yet no church edifice in the place. Prayers were read by the Rev. J. Walker Marsh, and the Lessons by the Rev. W. Clotworthy, Minister of the Congregation.

After this, his Lordship preached a sermon from St. Paul's Epistle to the Hebrews, 2nd chap., 3rd verse: "How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation." After the sermon, Confirmation was administered by the Bishop to 29 persons, and followed by a very suitable address to the candidates. At the close of the address the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered to the communicants.

In the afternoon his Lordship rode six miles from Crosshill, to fill an appointment made for him at Millbank, in the township of Mornington. The services were held in the Presbyterian Church, the use of which was kindly granted by the congregation. After Baptism, the Bishop again preached from 2nd Thess. 3rd chap., 1st verse. "Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course to be glorified; even as it is with you." The congregation, as might be expected, was very numerous.

The Lord Bishop of Huron gains new friends on every hand during his visitations, and attaches more than ever to him the congregations which were set apart in his Diocese. His benign manners and venerable appearance—his eloquence and truly Christian conduct—his zeal in the cause of the Church as manifested in his great labours—cannot fail to make him very popular with the whole Laity of his Diocese, while by the Clergy he is looked to as a worthy head of the Church, under whom it is both a pleasure and an honour to labour in the work of Christ.—Berlin Chronicle.

A CHARGE DELIVERED TO THE CLERGY OF THE DIOCESE OF HURON,

In St. Paul's Cathedral, London, Canada West, at his primary visitation, in June, 1859, by Benjamin Cronyn, D.D., Lord Bishop of Huron.

The great sin of the Roman apostacy is, that it interferes with, and encroaches upon, the office of Him "who abideth a Priest for ever," that it dishonours the Priesthood and sacrifice of the Lord Jesus Christ, intruding sinful and fallible
