Quebec Clerical Library.

Our clergy and other readers may not all be aware that there has existed for many years a library in Quebec city from which the Clergy of the Diocese have been permitted to borrow valuable books. The library, which has been established for several years in the Bishop's Office at the Cathedral Church Hall, has recently been greatly increased by a most valuable gift of upwards of a thousand volumes presented by the Rev. Canon Richardson, and consequently the Bishop requested his son, the Rev. E. A. Dunn, to reorganize the whole, and make it available for use. This has been done, all the books have been classified and very soon a copy of the new catalogue, with the conditions of membership, will be mailed to all our Clergy. The Dean of Quebec has been always the Librarian and Canon Von Iffland has been a trustee. The Bishop therefore, acting upon the Rules of Bry's Associates, who had assisted under certain conditions in forming the original library, has now made certain appointments so that the whole list of Officers now stands as follows :

Vis. Jr.—The Lord Bishop of Quebec.— Librarian.—The Very Rev. Dean Norman ; Trustees—The Librarian (ex-officio). Ven.
Archdeacon Roe, Rev. Canon Von Iffland, Rev. A. J. Balfour, Sub-Librarian and Treasurer, Rev. E. A. Dunn.

The Bishop also caused to be prepared a Draft of Rules which were submitted to a first meeting of the Governing Body, held at the Bishop's room on Thursday, February 21st, and were revised and adopted at a subsequent meeting held on Wednesday, March 27th. These rules will be printed and issued with the New Catalogue.

It was moved by the Dean of Quebec, seconded by Archdeacon Roe, and resolved unanimously :—That in accepting the very costly and most generous gift of books to the number of 1074, recently presented to the Quebec Clerical Library by the Rev. Canon Richardson, the Trustees desire to express their sincere gratitude for the same, and to tender their hearty thanks on the part of themselves and the Clergy of the Diocese for such munificent kindness. Canon Richardson's name will never be forgotten by his many friends, and will be specially bound up with this extremely opportune addition to the stock of Theological works possessed by the Library.

The Principal reports :—

Our College examination for the Lent Term began on Thursday, March 28, and concluded on Saturday, April 6. Holy Week was spent by the students in residence, lectures being suspended on Good Friday only. Amongst the features of the commemoration of this sacred season were a meditation service on the Thursday evening from 8 to 10, and the Three Hours Service on Good Friday, beginning at 12. Both services were conducted by Dr.
Allnatt. The break at Easter consisted of the days of Easter Week. Lectures were resumed on Thursday April 22nd.

At a special meeting of the Corporation in March, the Rev. R. A. Parrock, B.A. was elected Professor of Classics. Mr. Parrock was educated at Shrewsbury School and Pembroke College, Cambridge, and obtained a First Class in the Classical Tripos of 1891. He will reside in College and begin his duties in September.

We note with pleasure a short visit from Professor Ashley, of Harvard, formerly Fellow of
