

from the Cro-Magnon type of Palaeolithic times, and, therefore, not possessed of the same customs as the more mixed Iberian race or tribes. Sergi,⁽¹⁾ on the other hand, claims for the Iberian race a single African origin, and that as a uniform race it spread over Western France and the British Isles.

It would appear that in order to ascertain definitely who the dolmen builders were it is necessary first of all to determine clearly the origin and history of the Iberians, and this can only be done when the anthropology of the Spanish peninsula is as fully worked out as that of France.
