NONE OTHER IS GENUINE,

Was it a Plot?

Lt.-Gov. Macdonald entered Winnipeg the other day on a hand-car. He was wrecked in a C. P. R. train, and was obliged to have recourse to this humiliating and undignified means of locomotion. Mr. Grip sincerely hopes this was not the outcome of a deep Government plot to degrade more Grit Lt.-Governors. When the train went off the track both Couchon and Macdo ald were unseated with as little ceremony as Leteller experienced, but neither of them have as yet been dismissed. This is not owing to a want of inclination on the Government's part, but because it would be manifestly absurd to declare their usefulness gone after seeing the way in which they worked that hand-car.

Men of note—Bankers and brokers. Men of high aspirations—baloonists.

WE have been taught to entertain great respect for Mr. JoLy, but this has surely been misplaced if it is true, as the Quebec Telegraph says, that his Government have already perpetrated twenty-seven scandals. If this really so, it is a pity the Tory party has put its foot down on the dismissing power of Lieut.-Governors.

There is an item going the rounds about an Italian accidentally finding a gold mine while in the act of taking a drink at a spring. Incited by this narrative many sanguine individuals in this city are devoting most of their time to drinking, but we would respectfully call their attention to the fact that it was not a lager exing wherein the gold was discovered.

The editor of the Petrolia Advertiser has been running a foot-race with the Arkana Advocate man, and in publishing the result he says: "We have to use the immortal language of the great sculler, ELLIOTT, and say we have been beaten by a better man," but have this consolation, the honors have fallen into the hands of a mar. we believe capable of guarding them securely against all comers. Time will tell." It will, Broter Hubanne; time always does tell in a foot-race, but it must be better time than you made.

BALDNESS

Neither gasoline, vasoline, carboline, or Allen s, Ayer's, or Hall's hair restorers have produced luxuriant hair on bald heads. That great discovery is due to Mr. Wintercorbyn, 144 King-street, West, opposite Revere Flock, as can be testified to by hundreds of living witnesses in this city and Province. He challenges all the so-called restorers to produce a like result.
