YOUNG Myzer is quite liberal with his newly wedded wife,
 He supplies her with the loveliest steam-printed cheques in blank.
 The only little drawback to their happy married life
 Is his failure to deposit any money in the bank.
 —Puck.

SHE—"Why, Charlie, where have you been? I've been waiting an age for you."
HE—"Oh, but then your age is such a brief time, you know." She is more than ever of the opinion that Charley is such a dear fellow.

"WHAT is that terrible noise?" asked one Russian nobleman of another. "It sounds as if some one was riveting a boiler." "Yes," was the reply; "the Czar's valet is getting him ready for bed."—Washington Star.

COLLEGE PRESIDENT—"All the boys have attended prayers regularly this week?"
PROFESSOR—"Not one has missed for two weeks."
PRESIDENT—"Humph! Some infernal mischief is brewing."—Good News.

BEEFLAT—"That man actually murdered the song, don't you think so?"
VAN HORN—"No; I didn't notice that the sound was deadened at all."—Puck.

DYSPEPSIA presents itself in many disagreeable forms, but oftener in severe distress of the stomach soon after eating. Many experience sourness of the stomach, a sense of fulness, headache and dizziness. Paine's Celery Compound gives relief and rest.

THE SMOKER.

'Tis only when I'm feeling bad,
 And desperate I get,
 That I disgrace myself and whiff
 A nauseous cigarette.

When I am trying to be a swell
 And dollars plenty are
 Sometimes I fall from grace and smoke
 A costly, vile cigar.

But when at home I'm at my ease
 And happiness is ripe,
 I sit me down and revel in
 The luxury of a pipe.

—N. Y. Herald.

ANYONE furnishing their homes and requiring anything in the way of gas or electric fixtures and globes should call on R. H. LEAR & Co., 19 and 21 Richmond Street West. This firm is headquarters for goods in these lines. We would advise you to go direct to them and get their quotations.

GRACE—"Don't go, Harry."
HARRY—"I must, love; it is after ten."
GRACE—"Indeed it isn't; it's only half after." And Harry stayed.

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP has been used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

THE first kiss and the last
 Are the only ones worth noting.
 When love's begun and past—
 When grief gives place to doting,
 The first kiss and the last—
 What need of others adding?
 The first kiss and the last,
 The rest are merely padding!
 —New York Telegram.

DISEASES that were thought to be incurable a few years ago, are readily cured to-day by Paine's Celery Compound.

"WERE the boys early on hand?"
 "No. Late and on foot."

THE Superiress of the House of Bethlehem, Ottawa, says of Dyer's Improved Food for Infants: "We have made use of Dyer's Improved Food for Infants, and certify that it has been a most beneficial nourishment to the infants under our charge."

CHOLLY—"Awfully frank old chap, your governor."
PENELOPE—"Indeed?"
CHOLLY—"Yaas. Told me I was a fool when I asked him if I might marry you. Thought he ought to have a better opinion of his daughter, though, don't you know?"
