

occupied. It to expect, and hand neither ough to afford ling. The way sengers are at together is no- disgraceful. It fault of the of Canada, by cent discom- appear to be and careless

Of the cap- the steamers that in the exacting con- spite of much they have sh- are the only derstand the

The Captains consulting—boats ice-bound is too much on the other boat is big en- decent travel- in which pas- times crowded thing short of is entirely the Govern ment whom our re- forts and loss given a scant consideration. tains of both it can be said face of most ditions and in to discourage own that they men who un- problem o f our Winter navigation. If only their advice were heeded !