

House of Representatives in April 1977. It is expected that similar enabling Canadian legislation will be put before Parliament in the fall of 1977.

Canada is pursuing the possibility of entering into similar treaties with other interested countries. At the present time, there are approximately 250 Canadians in foreign prisons and 575 non-Canadians in Canadian federal prisons.