

ARTICLE IObligation to Extradite

Each Contracting State agrees to extradite to the other, in accordance with the provisions of this Treaty, any person who is wanted for prosecution or the imposition or enforcement of a sentence in the Requesting State for an extraditable offence.

ARTICLE IIExtraditable Offences

1. For the purpose of this Treaty, extradition shall be granted for conduct which is punishable under the laws of both Contracting States, both at the time of the commission of the offence and at the time of the extradition request, by imprisonment, detention order or other deprivation of liberty, for a maximum period of at least one year or by a more severe penalty. Where the request for extradition relates to a person convicted of such an offence who is wanted for the enforcement of a sentence of imprisonment, detention order or other deprivation of liberty, extradition shall be granted only if a period of at least six months of the penalty remains to be served.
2. For the purpose of this Article, it shall not matter whether the laws of the Contracting States place the acts or omissions constituting the offence within the same category of offence or denominate the offence by the same or similar terminology.
