BUS TRAGEDY IN ISRAEL

The Secretary of State for External Affairs, the Right Honourable Joe Clark, today expressed Canada's shock and sadness at the senseless and tragic incident involving an Israeli bus on July 6.

Mr. Clark said, "We express our sincere condolences to the families of the Canadians who died in this irrational act of violence as well as to the families of all the victims of this incident. We hope that those injured will have a speedy recovery."

Canada abhors all acts of violence, Mr. Clark said. "It is clear that incidents such as this contribute to a dangerous cycle of violence. We call for restraint in the aftermath of this vicious attack on innocent citizens."
