

Mrs. Landry added that the Canadian government is encouraging neighbouring countries to do everything possible to help bring about a return to peace and to avoid any action that would complicate the crisis in Rwanda or delay a solution of it.

While our aid program in Rwanda will not be changed, it is unavoidable that, in the current circumstances, certain projects will be delayed. The signature of aid agreements, which was to have taken place today, has therefore been postponed to a later date.

Consular information may be obtained at: (613) 996-9134.

For further information, media representatives should contact:

Media Relations Office:
External Affairs and International Trade Canada
(613) 995-1874