

APPENDIX No. 7

- SHAW, HEDLEY,—Managing Director, Maple Leaf Flour Milling Co., Ltd.—Mills operated—Capital stock—Statements produced for years 1918-1919, 610-2. Percentage of profit on capital—Amount of net profit—Dividends on common stock and amount paid in Victory Bonds, 612-3. Turnover in 1918, 613. Investments—Net earnings for three years, 614. Prices of flour, bran and shorts, 615-6. Point at which price of wheat is figured—Wheat in elevators—Present price of flour, 616-9. Terms cash—Certain extra charges other than the cost of manufacturing, 619-620. Proportion of wheat according to grade required for a barrel of flour, 621. Wheat seeds and chaff and ground screenings, 622-3. Depreciation charges—Reserve—Profits as given in statement produced, 624-637.
- SHEEP AND LAMBS:—Cost of production, estimated (Toole), 124.
- SHOE MANUFACTURERS:—See evidence of Reider, T. H., 721-739, 743-746. Côté, J. H., 738-742. Detweiler, N. B., 744-6, 750-5. Sullivan, J. A., 756-764.
- SHOE MERCHANTS, RETAIL:—See evidence of Letellier, E., 771-7. Masson, Robert, 777-784. Tetzzel, C. R., 784-8. Stephens, A. J., 788-797. Warner, Miss., 797-9.
- SHOULDIS, ALBERT,—Slinn-Shouldis Company, Bakers.—Used 986 bags of flour in May—Could not pay any income tax for the last two years—Salary, 769. Flour situation, 770.
- STATEMENTS:—(1) Price list of groceries under Cash and Carry, and Delivery systems (Crabtree), 224. (2) Factors in the High Cost of Living—Proposed remedy (Tulley), 334. (3) Amount of capital employed in Paton Manuf'g. Co. (Paton), 379. See also Appendices.
- STATISTICS, PRICE:—Difficult to handle, giving reasons (Coats), 92. Mr. Davis, M.P., appointed to look over official records with Mr. Coats, Dominion Statistician, respecting prices of commodities, and report, 93.
- STEERS, STALL-FED:—Experimented with two car loads of steers in 1917 and three small cars in 1919; result (Archibald), 67-8. Cost of steer fattening—Breed of steers—Figures given re stall-fed steers (Toole), 121-123. Cost of raising a steer or heifer (Drury), 192-3.
- STEPHENS, A. J.,—Shoe Merchant, Ottawa.—Turnover—Percentage of profit—Ninety per cent Canadian makes in stock—Canadian-made shoes have improved in quality—The "Invictus" is as good as the "Nettleton make"—Letter from Geo. H. Slater showing advance in wholesale price since 1916, 788-790. Exhibits a "Marsdon" and "Regal" shoes, 790. The "Srosis" shoe, 791. Gross and net profits, 793. Overhead expenses and cost of doing business—How and when surplus is disposed of, 794-6.
- STEVENS, M.P., H. H.:—Appointed Vice-Chairman of the Committee, 48.
- STIRLING, HARRY,—President, Fort William Grain Co.—A Commission business—Produces financial statements, 1917, 1918, 893-4. Shipment of ground screenings to Duluth, 895, 897-8. The Canadian Feed Manufacturing Co., 895-6. Business operations, 896-7.
- SUGAR AND SUGAR BEET PRODUCTION:—Commissioner's report on the sugar situation in the West—Brandon prices—Gentleman's agreements—Equalized rate system—Beet-root sugar industries make higher profits (O'Connor), 55-57, 59.
- SULLIVAN, J. A.,—E. T. Wright Shoe Co.—Branch of an American corporation—Produces annual statements, 1912-1918—Auditors report, 756. Manufacturing account—Shipments—Manufacturing costs, 757. Assets and Liabilities, 758. Cost of materials, 758-9. Profits all made since 1916.—Turnover—Average gain, 760. The parent plant at Rockland, Mass.—Royalty charges—Cost of selling—Labour cost, 761—Prices of men's and women's shoes, 762. Manufacturing costs less in United States—Cost of material, 763-4.
- SWIFT CANADIAN Co.:—Theory of business and policy of the company (Waller), 170-3.
- TETZEL, C. R.,—Gales & Company, Shoe Merchants.—Men's, Ladies and Children's higher grades—Advance on cost—Novelty shoes—Portion of stock figured at a loss every year, 784. Business operations, 785. Various makes in stock, 786-7. Canadian and American makes compared in quality and price, 787-8.
- THOMPSON, RICHARD,—President Canadian Woollen Manufacturers' Association.—Statement re woollen situation, 878-881. Profit made on turnover, 879. Figures given re output, raw material used, etc.—Wages—Spread of profit—Conditions prior to the war, 880. Conditions shortly after the outbreak of the war—Hawthorne Mill, Carleton Place—Produces statistics, 881-2. Effect of the protective and preferential tariffs, 882-3. Manufactured blankets and hosiery chiefly for the American, Canadian, British, French and Italian governments, 884-5. At present manufacturing for the civilian trade, 885. Roumanian and Belgian orders, 888. Certain lines of goods manufactured and the spread of profits thereon, 889-892.
- THOMPSON, HUGH,—Farmer.—Cost of producing wheat—Statement of costs and production, 868-9. Yield per acre—Wages, 869-870.
- TOOLE, PROFESSOR W.,—Guelph Experimental Farm.—Cost of producing milk, 111-5. Milking machines, 116. Butter production and cost, 116. Encourage better live stock and rates might be lowered, 117—Wage of farm help, 117. Figures re cost of pork, 117-120. Cost of beef production—Breed of steers—Western and Ontario beef, 121-123. Sheep and lambs, production of, and cost of producing lambs, 124.