

Public Institution. We have both become deeply interested in it and would be glad if we could be tied up with it in some way in which we could serve. And if we could go representing McGill University we would feel highly honored ourselves and do all we could to adequately express her attitude and spirit in these Canadian efforts for peaceful expansion. The various Canadian organizations interested in this Goodwill Cruise would appreciate McGill's