

move one or more of the hours of his course to any other available space on the Time Table; it is understood that such changes are purely personal and temporary, and involve no vested claim whatever.

10. Heads of Departments are requested to send in to the Dean the revised list of courses in the Department as under the new curriculum.

11. It is understood that the Time Table when made shall be submitted to the Faculty for approval.

Gordon Loring
Dean