Dear Mrs. Byers,

The School to which I was referring is the Nautical College, Pangbourne, England. Brief information with some pictures is to be found in Patons List of Schools, page 294 in the 1924 edition, of which there is a copy in the Redpath Reference Library. I cannot speak with first-hand knowledge of the School but from such rumours as I have heard of it I have every reason to think that it is the sort of school which would be well worth your consideration.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs. A.F. Byers,
5806 Queen Mary Road,
MONTREAL.
