

of 230 Men return'd from their March, and found the Enemy were mov'd off. Yesterday two Men of War from England join'd our Fleet. The City threw 62 Bombs against us from three o'Clock in the Afternoon, to eight the next Morning, and a great Number of Shot besides, which did no great Damage. However, our Bombs and Shot beat down several Chimneys and Roofs of Houses, &c.

Thursday 13.

Yesterday the City fir'd 17 Bombs and Shot against a small Battery which we had erected about a Mile from the Grand Battery. Five of them were 42 Pounders. Last Night we carried a Schooner out of the Harbour. Tho' the Island Battery fir'd twenty odd Bombs and Shot likewise against our Ligh-house Battery, yet they did no Damage. Our Bombs and Shot, on the other Hand, did considerable Execution.

The Ships of War which lay at Anchor before the Harbour, are these that follow, viz.
