DISTRICT OF VERMONT, TO WIT:

L. S. BE it remembered, that on the thirteenth day of April, in the thirty eighth year of the Independence of the United States of America, ELIZABETH CAPTIVE KIMBALL, of the said district, hath deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof she claims as proprietor, in the words following to wit:

"A Narrative of the Captivity of Mrs. Johnson. Containing an account of her sufferings during four years with the Indians and French. Together with an appendix, containing the Sermons preached at her funeral, and that of her mother, with sundry other interesting articles. Third edition, corrected and considerably enlarged."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An Act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned."

JESSE GOVE,
Clerk of the District of Vermont.

A true Copy of Record,
Examined and Sealed by J. Gove, Clerk.
