

Days. 1796.

TABLE showing what proportion Currencies bear to each other, throughout the Continent of NORTH-AMERICA.

|                                                                                                      |  |                                                                                                                                    |  |                                                                                                                   |  |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| To Reduce Sterling into the Currency of                                                              |  | From Pennsylvania,                                                                                                                 |  | Deduct $\frac{1}{5}$ th,                                                                                          |  |
| Nova-Scotia,New-Brunswick,Canada,Island of St. John,Cape Breton andNewfoundland, |  | Add one Fifth.                                                                                                                     |  | Rule, Multiplyby 3 and Divideby 5.                                                                        |  |
| Of Massachusetts,Connecticut,Rhode-Island,New-Hampshire,Vermont andVirginia,     |  | Add one Third.                                                                                                                     |  | From New-York &North-Carolina,Deduct $\frac{1}{10}$ thRule, Multiplyby 9, & Divideby 16.      |  |
| Of Pennsylvania,Delaware,Maryland andNew-Jersey,                                         |  | Add $\frac{1}{5}$ th—Rule,Multiply the givenSum by 5, & dividethe product by 3,the Quotient willbe the Answer. |  | From South-Carolinaand Georgia,Deduct one$\frac{1}{16}$ th—Rule;Multiply by 27& divide by 40. |  |
| <hr/>                                                                                                |  |                                                                                                                                    |  |                                                                                                                   |  |
| To Reduce the Currency of                                                                            |  | Nova-Scotia,New-Brunswick,Canada,Island of St. John,Cape-Breton, &Newfoundland,                                |  | Into theCurrency.                                                                                             |  |
| Of New-York andNorth-Carolina,                                                                   |  | Add 7-9ths—RuleMultiply by 16 &Divide by 9.                                                                                |  | Of Massachusetts,Connecticut,Rhode-Island,New-Hampshire,Vermont, andVirginia,                 |  |
| Of South-Carolinaand Georgia,                                                                    |  | Add one 9th—Rule, Multiply,by 28 & Divideby 27.                                                                        |  | Add one Fifth.                                                                                                    |  |
| <hr/>                                                                                                |  |                                                                                                                                    |  |                                                                                                                   |  |
| To Reduce the under mentioned Cur-rencies into Sterling—viz.                                     |  | From Nova-Scotia,New-Brunswick,Canada,Island of St. John,Cape Breton andNewfoundland,                          |  | Deduct oneTenth.                                                                                              |  |
| From Massachusetts,Connecticut,Rhode-Island,New-Hampshire,Vermont andVirginia,   |  | Deduct onefourth.                                                                                                              |  | Of Pennsylvania,Delaware,Maryland andNew-Jersey,                                                      |  |
|                                                                                                      |  |                                                                                                                                    |  | Add one half.                                                                                                     |  |
|                                                                                                      |  |                                                                                                                                    |  | Of New-York andNorth-Carolina,                                                                                |  |
|                                                                                                      |  |                                                                                                                                    |  | Add $\frac{1}{5}$ th—RuleMultiply by 8,and Divide by5.                                                |  |
|                                                                                                      |  |                                                                                                                                    |  | Of South-Carolinaand Georgia,                                                                                 |  |
|                                                                                                      |  |                                                                                                                                    |  | Deduct one $\frac{1}{16}$ th.                                                                                     |  | forenoon.

 forenoon.
 morning.
 morning.
 night.
 11. 12. 1.
 25. 9. 8.
 15. 9. 56.
 4. 0. 44.
 11. 16.
 5. 1. 32.
 19. 2. 20.
 30. 1. 8.
 1. 1. 56.
 8. 2. 44.
 20. 3. 32.
 26. 4. 20.
 55. 5. 8.
 44. 5. 50.
 48. 6. 58.
 8. 7. 38.
 39. 8. 18.
 37. 9. 6.
 35. 9. 54.
 36m.
 2. 10. 42.
 1. 11. 30.
 1. 12. 18.
 1. 1. 6.
 1. 54.
 2. 50.
 3. 46.
 36m.
 4. 40.
 5. 36.
 6. 30.
 7. 25.
 8. 20.
 9. 8.
 9. 56.