

laying in the Cul-de-Sac to all the Bye-Laws, Rules, and Orders of the Trinity House, except those laying charges of Wharfage or Dock Dues.

4th. That hereafter all Boats or Vessels loaded in whole or in part with Hay or Straw, shall repair to the River Saint Charles to dispose of their cargoes, and no where else, under a penalty not exceeding forty shillings, current money of this Province, which Penalty shall be recoverable from the Master Owner or other person having charge of such Boats or Vessels loaded in the whole or in part with Hay or Straw, after having been duly notified to proceed for the above purpose to the River Saint Charles as aforesaid.

5th. And whereas a Bye-Law Rule and Order, was on the twenty-fifth day of June, in the year of Our Lord Christ one thousand eight hundred and five, made ordained and constituted by the Master, Deputy-Master and Wardens of the Trinity House of Quebec, and afterwards on the twenty-ninth day of June in the year abovesaid, was sanctioned by His Excellency Sir Robert Shore Milnes, then Lieutenant-Governor of this Province, which Bye-Law Rule and Order is in the words following, to wit: "That on the south side of Mr. James M'Callum's Wharf, commonly called Saint Andrew's Wharf, and on the north side of the Wharf of William Grant, Esquire, commonly called the Queen's Wharf, one tier of decked Vessels with their heads to the west shore, and one tier of craft, while employed to load or unload such Vessels may lay, and that any Person or Persons who shall encumber the landing place with any other decked Ship or Vessel shall incur and pay a penalty of twenty shillings for every twelve hours until such Ship or Vessel is removed." And whereas it is necessary to repeal the said Bye-Law and Order, It is hereby declared to be repealed, and all and every part thereof is repealed accordingly.

Signed, { GEORGE SYMES, Master,
THOMAS WILSON, Dy. Master,
THOMAS WHITE, Warden,
W. G. SHEPPARD, Warden,
J. LAMBLY, Harbour Master and Warden.

At the request of the said Master, Deputy Master and Wardens of the said Trinity House of Quebec, I have perused and examined the said Bye-Laws, Rules and Orders, and the same and each of them as far as I lawfully may, have sanctioned and do sanction by these presents.

Given under my hand and Seal at Arms, at the Castle of Saint Lewis, in the City of Quebec, in the said Province of Lower-Canada, this twenty-first day of April, in the year of Our Lord Christ, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, and in the second year of His Majesty's Reign.

(Signed) DALHOUSIE, Governor.

By His Excellency's Command,

(Signed) J. READY, Civil Secretary.