

which enables him to cut wood, only in his improvements, without paying any stumpage dues, is obliged to go to the Crown Lands Agent and declare what amount of wood he has thus cut, on what part of his lot and when it has been cut. If the Settler does not do this, he is liable like anyone else to pay not only single duty but double duty.

Cancellation of Lots in the Reserves

One of the remarks about the cancellation of lots in these Reserves, to which I referred in my speech at St. Jérôme and to which also I alluded in the House during last Session, calls for special attention by the writer of « the Position of the Limit Holder. »

So that there may be no misunderstanding on this point, I will ask Mr. Owen to refer to the Quebec « Soleil » of November 25th, which expressed my views as uttered at St. Jérôme, and which have been already approved of by Mr. Owen, in his article above quoted, which appeared in the Pulp and Paper Magazine.
