

	PAGE
trips. — To the rescue. — Effects of exhaustion and cold. — Dr. Kane's journey. — Great Glacier of Humboldt. — Return and illness of Dr. Kane. — Second winter in the ice. — Privations and suffering. — Abandonment of the Advance . — Retreat and rescue	199

CHAPTER XII

Dr. Hayes's expedition. Winter quarters at Port Fonlke, Greenland coast. — Death of Sonntag. — Dr. Hayes's journey. — Attempt to cross Smith Sound. — Hayes's farthest. — "Open Polar Sea." — Homeward bound	235
--	-----

CHAPTER XIII

Charles Francis Hall. — Early life. — Interest in fate of Sir John Franklin. — First journey to Greenland. — Discovery of Fro-bisher relics. — Experiences and study of the Eskimos. — Second journey. — Delays and disappointments. — Sledging trips. — King William Land at last. — Franklin relics. — Return of Hall to United States. — Polaris expedition. — Reaches high northing. — Hall's sledge journey. — Return and death. — Polaris winters. — No escape. — Polaris is wrecked. — Part of crew adrift on the ice-floe. — Remainder build winter hut. — Final rescue and return to United States	243
--	-----

CHAPTER XIV

Captain Thomas Long. — Discovery of Wrangell Land. — Captain Carlsen and Captain Palliser sail across the Sea of Kara. — Captain Johannesen circumnavigates Nova Zembla. — First German expedition. — Second German expedition. — Germania , Captain Koldewey commanding. — Hansa , Captain Hegemann. — Departure from Bremen. — Crossing the Arctic Circle. — Island of Jan Mayen. — The ice line. — Separation from the Hansa . — Adrift on the ice-floe. — Winter. — Final rescue. — Germania beset. — Winter. — Sledging parties. — Lieutenant Payer's remarkable journey — 77° 1' north latitude. — Return of the Germania	268
--	-----

CHAPTER XV

Norwegian expedition, 1871. — Payer and Weyprecht. — The Tegethoff adrift in the Polar pack. — Discovery of Franz Josef Land. —
--	--