

I N D E X.

A.

AMERICA , the Author of the Measures against it thought by Mr. Fox bound to answer for all the Mischief and Expence of it	2
A singular Way of recovering it, ascribed to Lord North	15
Lord North suspected, detested, and despised by it	17
Lord North censured for sending Commissioners to treat for Peace	51, 52
American Disputes , charged to Lord North's Negligence and Incapacity	3
Lord North is of Opinion they will end speedily, happily, and without bloodshed	5
American War , Lord North's conduct respecting it ar- ranged by Mr. Fox	6
also by Mr. Burke	6
Lord North's Reasons for continuing it	54
Accused Obstinacy Lord North charged with it	67
Arbitrary Power , Mr. Fox charges Lord North with a De- sign of spreading it throughout the British Empire	10
Andacity , Lord North reprehended for it	58
Avarice and Ambition , Lord North accused of both	23
Axe , Lord North pronounced by Mr. Fox deserving one	35

B.

Blundering Pilot , Mr. Fox describes Lord North as such	5
Breach of Promise , Mr. Fox charges Lord North with a Breach of it	7
Bribery , Mr. Burke suspects Lord North of it	7
Burke , Mr. charges Lord North with Indignity and Vileness	11
censures Lord North for suspending the Habeas Corpus Act	12
compares Lord North to Sancho Panza's Physician	13
imputes the Capture of General Burgoyne to the ignorance of Lord North	14
charges Lord North with a most remarkable In- stance of Silliness	15 accuses Lord North of Impotence	16
charges Lord North with raising men without the Knowledge of Parliament	17
reminded by Lord North of Pericles	18