

I, WILLIAM FERGUSON TAMBLYN, was born at Oshawa, Ont., 1874. I attended the Whitby Collegiate Institute, and from 1891 to 1895 Toronto University, where I received the degree of B. A., with First Class Honors in Classics. In 1895-6 I studied at the American School of Classical Studies in Rome, under Professor Hale. In the years 1896-7 and 1897-8 respectively, I held the Fellowship in Latin and the Henry Drisler Fellowship in Columbia University.