again the senior cadet will present his record-hook to the permanent staff officer or staff N. C. O. nearest to his place of residence for registration for recruit-training in the Territoria: Force.

RECEPTION OF REPORT.

The public etate of mind attained in Austrelia and New Zealand, which we might weil like to see in Caneda, is clearly set forth in an editorial from "The Dominion" of Wellington, New Zealand, on Lord Kitchener's plan, which easts "Hie report must appeal almost as much to the average citizen as to the expert mind trained in military matters. He has based his echeme on the assumption that the country, while properly anxious to place iteelf in a position to defend ite shores in case of need, does not wish to create a huge etanding army which must drain its recourcee and impoverieh ite people. He hae taken it for granted, and rightly so, we think, that the people of New Zealand recognize that the necessity has arisen for some PERSONAL SELF-SACRIFICE on their part; that the time has come when the younger people of the Dominion, capable of healing arms, MUST SACRIFICE A LITTLE OF THEIR TIME TO THE NATIONAL WEAL. The country under Lord Kitchener's echeme is not to he over-ridden by military rule. The permanent force ie still to remain a email one; BUT THE CITIZENS THEMSELVES ARE TO BE CALLED ON TO ATTAIN THAT SKILL IN THE USE OF ARMS WHICH WILL ENABLE THEM IN TIME OF NEED TO DEFEND THEIR HOMES AND THEIR FAMILIES."

CONCLUSION.

In conciueion, it seems beyond question that if we are to have a healthier, more disciplined youth in Canada, a manhood trained for the swift, unexpected day of danger, a defence force which is one in fat and not in name only, a uniform loyalty to the one flag by all the mixed nationalities in our great Dominion, we must go back to the spirit of the wholesome old militia law of our forefathers which saved our country.
