

SHUNCHO, KATSUKAWA (ca. 1775-1795).

"Pupil of Shunsho. He followed the style of Torii Kiyonaga. His works closely resemble those of the Torii master, but have less force. He worked from about 1775 to about 1795. In some of his later prints he imitated Yeishi's prints in the Utamaro manner. The dates of his birth and death are not known."

YEISHI, HOSODA (ca. 1782-1800).

"One of the foremost artists of the school. He was a samurai of high rank, and a pupil of Kano Eisen. For three years before he took to Ukiyō-e he held an official post in the household of the Shogun Iyeharu. Yeishi was a master of all the resources of the art of colour printing, and his prints are characterized by great elegance and refinement. He worked from about 1782 to 1800, when he gave up print designing. He died in 1829." —F.W.G.
