McLuckie vs. Thompson; Haddon vs. Turpin In Semi-finals for Golf Championship

Geo. S. Lyon Loses in the Morning and Seymour Lyon in Afternoon—
Criticism of the Play at Lambton.

By A. W. P.
George Lyon, the present holder of the amateur golf championship of Canada, has rendered invaluable service to Canadian golf and done more perhaps than any living man to make the game healthy and popular in Canada. But yesterday he rendered, perhaps unknowingly, another great service in the interest of golf, by losing his title to the premier golf position. When one man, no matter how skillful or how popular he may be, holds a championship in sport for any length of time, even if he holds it as Mr. Lyon did by sheer merit, that particular sport is apt to get into a rut and not attract new men to its ranks. For instance, a young promising golfer is very likely to say under such circumstances, "What is the use of my going in or practicing for the championship when so and so has it clinched and can just win it when he likes?" If the championship can change hands every year it is better for the game, as it raises the sporting spirit in the younger generation and every young golfer naturally thinks he can beat the other fellow, and goes out to the links for practice in the hope of one perfect hole-in-one to bring it up to championship form. It is, therefore, under these circumstances we again say Mr. Lyon has rendered a service to golf by being defeated yesterday.

With the exception of G. H. Turpin of the Royal Montreal—and he had to fight for dear life to win—the old brigade of golfers went down yesterday before the younger generation. Youth will be served, and he took his good meal in the third and fourth rounds of the amateur championship at Lambton yesterday. The first veteran of the game to suffer defeat was the champion himself, George Lyon, who went under to the young Scotchman, J. Haddon, by the margin of two up. When we say that by those who have followed the tournament he was looked upon as a somewhat easy victim for Lyon yesterday morning. It only shows how mistaken many a golfer is in their opinion. If Mr. Haddon had been a senior during the tournament he would have been in the public eye. Whilst the public has been following other players, Mr. Haddon has been winning his matches and not making a fuss about it. Yesterday morning he was somewhat of an unknown quantity in connection with winning the championship. Today every one is talking about him. He has come from behind and now every one is asking, why was he not watched sooner. But he can play golf. He seems to have no nerves and his game is not in any particular shot. It's an all round game with good putting predominating. It was undoubtedly that latter factor which gave him his victory over Mr. Lyon. Mr. Haddon is perhaps 22 years of age, is a Scotchman, with but four years Canadian residence. He learned the game on the famous Brimfield Hill, Edinburgh, where you can play the finest golf in the world for two cents a round. He is also a member of the Toronto Golf Club.

Two days after the championship Haddon drove off a very small gallery followed them, but the golf displayed must have been of a pretty high order as Lyon was out in 36—put—and was two up on Haddon at the turn. Haddon was sticking like a leech to the champion and in his Scotch way trying to wear him down.

Fight Starts Today At Four Toronto Time

Last week we commented on the fact that indications were that Willard would defeat Dempsey in his twelve-round battle, that takes place today at three o'clock, Toledo time, or four o'clock here, and that the fight would be a close one. The selection, there was plenty of even money obtainable in the city yesterday for the fight. The odds were either side, the Willard is likely to be a 2-1 favorite when the gong sounds for the first round. As at Toledo, there has been little local wagering, with interest intense.

The G.N.W. special ringside wire is at the Star, Shear, Loew's and Christie Street Soldiers' Hospital. The Army Suite at King and John streets, the Royal Alexandra and other places are also giving reports. Toledo time is an hour later than here. Thus the men will get off on their little journey at four o'clock, "Toledo time."

If they start sharp on time, and the mill goes the limit, it will be all over in 17 minutes, or 13 minutes to five o'clock. A draw decision is possible, and would leave the title with Willard. However, taking everything into consideration, the odds, skill, and most of all, their form, as revealed by the experts on the spot, Willard's size more than counterbalancing his age, the champion is likely to win to the 12th round, and then to the 13th round, and then to the 14th round, and then to the 15th round, and then to the 16th round, and then to the 17th round, and then to the 18th round,
