ALLEGED INSULT TO AMERICAN FLAG

Canadian Nurse in Vermont Hospital Said to Have Called It a Dirty Rag.

Rutland, Vt., Nov. 25.—An alleged anti-American incident reported by nurses at the Rutland Hospital is to be the subject of inquiry at a joint hearing by a committee of the board of aldermen and the directors of the hospital tomorrow night. The incident as reported to the aldermen developed from an alleged conversation between Miss Annie McLane of Woodstock, N. B., and Miss Marion Niles, an American girl, both nurses at the hospital.

Miss Niles, it was said, had shown a postcard picture to Miss McLane, remarking on its beauty, when the Canadian girl agreed, but added: "Except for that dirty rag," referring to an American flag which had a prominent place in the picture. A spirited argument between the nurses followed, and the incident was called to the attention of Miss Annie Aitken, superintendent of the hospital, who is a sister of Lord Beaverbrook of Canada.

A demand by American nurses with a demand by American nurses that Miss McLane apologize. When the apology was not forthcoming, the American nurses went on strike as a protest, but returned subsequently.

Miss McLane is now said to be at her home at Woodstock, on leave, or absence. American nurses assert that she has not yet apologized, and on their representations, Ald. C. W. Poucher brought the matter before the city fathers for inquiry.

STATE DINNER TO PRINCE FIRST "DRY" ONE IN EMPIRE

Halifax, N.S., Nov. 25.—The Halifax Herald, commenting on last night's state dinner to the Prince of Wales, says "dry" was the first state dinner in the empire at which intoxicating liquors had no place. There were none there—it was a "dry" state dinner—the first "dry" state dinner of its kind in our history. This is, we think, a precedent, indicative of the urge of the times.

PATTI LEAVES ESTATE VALUED AT $580,000

London, Nov. 25.—Adelina Patti, the famous prima donna, who died Sept. 27 at her castle in Wales, left a gross fortune of $1,180,000. She bequeathed her entire property to Baron Rolf Cederstrom, her husband, with the exception of special bequests of jewelry to Alfred de Rothschild, Marianne Fissler, Clara Fissler and Mabel Woodford and a Pope Leo XIII. stole to Herbert Vaughan, a nephew of Father Bernard Vaughan.

Glace Bay Clerks Call Strike To Support Manager's Action

Sydney, Nov. 25.—A strike of Glace Bay clerks has been called off. The strike was unique in that it was called by the clerks of a Glace Bay concern in support of a manager's action in discharging a fellow-employee by whom he had been assaulted. When the directors reinstated the discharged men the strike resulted. "Kid" Burns, a prizefighter, who was the cause of the trouble, was again suspended and the clerks went back to work.

AIM NOT TO CRUSH, BUT GUIDE EGYPT

Whatever Terms Imposed on Turkey, British Protectorate Stands, Says Curzon.

London, Nov. 25.—Earl Curzon, the foreign secretary, speaking in the house of lords today, said that Egypt was neither able to protect her own frontiers from aggression nor to guarantee a stable internal government. He declared that Great Britain could not wash her hands of a country standing at the door of Africa and the highway to India. The idea that the aspirations of the Egyptian nation were to be crushed, however, he said, was an extravagant misconception.

The Egyptians, Earl Curzon continued, could not be shown too clearly that, whatever peace was imposed on Turkey, recognition of the British protectorate would be one of those terms. Therefore, no provision in the peace treaty with Turkey would alter the task with which the mission headed by Lord Milner, secretary for the colonies, to investigate the unrest in Egypt was entrusted. Lord Milner, he said, had no constitution in his pocket, but was going to consult with the Egyptians with regard to how they could best co-operate in the management of their country under British guidance.

DROP IN COAL PRICE SURPRISES BRITAIN

Some Critics Ascribe It to a Deep Political Move to Influence Elections.

London, Nov. 25.—No domestic event in a long time has so stirred the press as the reduction in the price of coal, announced in the house of commons yesterday by Sir Auckland Geddes, minister of national service and reconstruction. The action, coming as it did, shortly after a statement by the minister that even a six-shilling decrease was impossible, caused general amazement and satisfaction at the prospect of cheaper household coal has been tempered by mystification as to how it was done, on the one hand, and why it was not done sooner, on the other.

In consequence a deep political move is imagined in some quarters to be at the bottom of the matter, one editorial suggestion being that as several by-elections are impending the concession to householders is a vote-catching dodge.

While the coal owners, thru some of their spokesmen, declare the reduction in price means ruin for them, as coal cannot be produced under such conditions, except at a grave loss, the miners and ought to be carried much farther.

The latter, and the section of the press which supports them, point out that the net reduction does not affect industrial coal, which remains at what is declared to be an unreasonable price, and will have to be paid for by the public in high prices for commodities which depend on coal for production. They contend that the increase of six shillings in July was utterly unnecessary, and that the government made a huge profit from it.

Critics Sir Auckland Geddes, secretary of the Miners' Federation, says that the coal used by domestic consumers amounts to only 15 per cent. of the total, and that its reduction by 10 shillings absolves only £11,000,000 of surplus money obtained thru the July increase, there being still 240,000,000 at the government's disposal for a further reduction.

The Labor members of the house of commons and their supporters intend, it is said, to carry on an agitation against the government, until this alleged surplus has been applied to lowering the price all around, and especially on industrial coal. The situation thus seems to contain the germ of a lively domestic political upheaval. Sir Auckland is severely criticized by several of the newspapers, some of them attributing the disparity between his statements to mere blundering, and others imputing to him a crafty political move which is yet to be exposed.

MARTIAL LAW IN SARAGOSSA.

Saragossa, Spain, Nov. 25.—Because of the general strike which has been declared here the Saragossa authorities today proclaimed martial law. The tramways and other traffic lines have been suspended. The strike was called in protest against the arrest and deportation to Barcelona of the presidents of various labor unions.

SHOT FOR POCKETING BOLSHEVIK FUNDS

Riazon, Russia, October 27.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—M. Bakromoff, the president of the Soviet here, who raised a "local fund for the purchase of entente imperialist statements," has been shot by the extraordinary commission for combating counter-revolution, for misappropriating funds intended for spreading Bolshevik ideas.

According to a newspaper report Bakromoff read a detailed report to the Riazon Soviet, declaring that he had bought Premier Clemenceau at France for 150,000 rubles, President Wilson for 200,000 rubles, and the Berlin foreign office for 40,000 rubles. The commission against counter-revolution discovered that the fund was a swindle, and that Bakromoff and two local officials in the mobilization department had pocketed the money.

Bakromoff admitted that he had printed private paper money to the amount of 5,400 rubles.

British Domestics Show What I.O.D.E. Chapter Can Accomplish

A unique and interesting bazaar was launched yesterday by St. Andrew's Chapter, I.O.D.E., the membership of which is made up of fifty young women who came to Canada as domestics, and whose enthusiasm has made their chapter one of the finest in the city.
