

Profit making is the only able motive for merchandising.

It's the only excuse we have to offer for being in business, the reason why we can sell such good reliable suits for boys at such fair prices to-day and every day.

If we attempted the cut-throat business, the quality of boys' clothing would fall, and what would we gain or you gain?

It's because of quality, which is the first consideration here, that we sell so many boys' suits. The bargain fellows make bigger profits, but here your good-will is counted worth something.

Hewson tweeds have revolutionized the boys' trade of this store. You can't beat them for wear, and that's what counts in boys' clothing-6.50 to 12.00 is the price range, and full value for every dollar.
