Gifts From Outside.
From outside friends of the society came

From outside friends of the society came many gifts, and also from Victoria Ladies' Loyal Orange Lodge, Toronto, much needlework, which was deeply appreciated, coming, as it did, from a sister organization. I'rince Edward County has subscribed nearly $1400. The local members of the society, in addition to this amount, which they collected, have also erected a wharf worth $300, and, in order that the largest vessels salling into Picton Harbor may land at this wharf, the Government dredge has done $1500 worth of work. The farmers of the county will liberally supply provisions for the little ones, as soon as they, with their nurses, arrive here.

The financially Strong.

The financial standing of the association

The financial standing of the association is one of remarkable strength for such a young association; $5375 was shown by the auditors to be the amount received to date for the home, and for the funeral and other expenses was received some $2000. During the year 700 members were added to the roll. Several new lodges are about to be opened, and the society lines widened over a larger area of Canada and the neighboring republic.

After the installation of officers, John Hewitt, County Master of the Orangemen of Toronto, made a thrilling address, In which he outlined the many changes that have come over this country and the United States during this century. Said the speaker: "Wherever the flag of Britain, or its daughter flag, the Stars and Stripes, waved, enlightenment, truth and righteousness followed in their train. Christian colonization is the hope of the nations, and that alone, and no factor in it was of more importance than the work which the True Blue Society had in hand. Relieve, educate and train the young, and there will soon be a reduction in fallen humanity." He brought warm greetings and many promises of future support from the parent society.

Concluding Exercises.

Resolutions were passed acknowledging votes of thanks to the Fictor brether and citizens, also to the speakers, were unanimously passed. The Grand Lodge closed by prayer and the singing of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds' and "The Maple Leaf Forever."

and Paid Attention to the Officers Particularly.

Ottawa, Aug. 24.—Major-General Hutton inspected the Royal Canadian Regiment of Infantry this morning at the camp at Rockcliffe. He was accompanied by Lieut.-Col.
Cotton, D.O.C., and Major Brown, P.L.D.
C., as his staff.

The inspection took place at 9 o'clock

This morning and occupied a couple of hours. Lieut.-Col. Buchan was in command of the regulars, with Major McDougall and Major Denison.

The General put the regiment through a severe inspection and was particularly critical with the officers. When a mistake would be made by these gentlemen he would draw their attention to it sharply.
