The canadian was six to one against Squires when he entered the ring pitched in the big stadium which had been erected at Bush Cutter's Bay for the fight, and faced Harry Nathan, the referee. He received an ovation from his countrymen on his appearance. Burns followed him into the ring and was received with cheers. When he removed his outer clothing and appeared in ring costume he appeared to be heavy and not closely trained. The sun beat down fiercely on the open ring, and Burns, winning the toss, chose the northwest corner. OPENS. Squires Was Aggressive.

Squires was often on the aggressive, but was beaten after a terrific fight. In the sixth round both were covered with blood. In the seventh Burns was groggy and dodged to evade punishment.

The battle took place

SYDNEY, N.S.W., Aug. 24.—
Tommy Burns, the champion heavyweight pugilist, again defeated Bill Squires, the Australian, here to-day, knocking him out in the thirteenth round of a fast battle, which was witnessed by 20,000 persons, among them hundreds of sailors from the American battleships now in the harbor.
The Canadian earned £2500 in the battle.

HOW BURNS WON.

fourth, and it was even up, both men fighting terrifically.

Squires landed a terrible left on Burns' jaw in the fifth, but Burns forced him to his corner, Squires dodging till the gong sounded. The sixth was Burns' round, altho both men were bleeding when the gong sounded.

groggy and dodged to evade punishment.

The battle took place in a 24-foot ring, a good view of which could be had from all parts of the building. Twenty thousand persons we've present when Prendergast, the light weight champion of the American fieet, and Raff, of Sydney, were introduced in the preliminary ten-round bout. Raff was knocked out in the jaw. The fighting was even in the first round, but in the second Squires rushed the fighting and had decidedly the better of the round, a punch bleeding the better of the round, a punch bleeding when the gong sounded.

The seventh was Squires' round, he forcing Burns and having him decideding was first through the properties of the round. The eighth was fiercely fought, with honors even, also the ninth and tenth.

The eleventh was Squires' round, he forcing Burns groggy when the gong sounded, Burns staggering to his seat, but in the twelfth, with Squires forcing, Burns lured him on and then gong sounded.
