BRIDGE WAS BURNED AND THEN COLLAPSED

Official Statement Made — Telephone Franchise is Held Back For a Fortnight.

HAMILTON, Sept. 28.—(Special.)—The inquiry into the T. H. & B. accident Sunday morning in which the three trainmen lost their lives will be held Tuesday evening. E. E. Fisher, the superintendent of the railway, gave out the following statement concerning the accident:

The lamentable accident at the bridge, west of Mineral Springs, was due solely to fire, which burned the floor system and plating between the passage of a light engine at 11.40 p.m. Saturday night and the arrival of train No. 60 at eight minutes after 6 a.m. Sunday.

The bridge was 450 feet in length, consisting of three openings and of standard construction for wooden trestles, and had a large factor of safety beyond that which would safely carry the heaviest engine or car loading run on this line.

In conformity with an order of the board of railway commissioners for Canada, this and all other wooden trestles on this line are inspected twice daily. Very much heavier engines than those which were run over it regularly during the past summer. The report of the explosion of the boiler is incorrect, as the boiler in the engine which was destroyed was three box cars loaded with apples and onions and flat cars loaded with gravel. The leading screw cars were piled up on top of the engine, and the boiler was crushed. The boiler was caught fire from the burning bridge and fire in the fire box of the engine. The evidence shows that the cause of the bridge, which was covered with gravel, thrown down after the engine went through the bridge, protecting them from any further damage, was the cause of the accident was fire.

The few bones that remain of the victims will be distributed in three equal parts to the families of the deceased, the priest joining in the ceremony.

Engineer McFadden was a prominent Conservative, and a warm personal friend of the late Sir John A. Macdonald.

Phone Bylaw Hoisted.

The bylaw giving a five-year exclusive franchise to the Bell Telephone Co. was given a two weeks' hoist at the city council this evening by a close vote. For $4000 a year and 150 telephones for the use of the city at $25 a year each, the company asked for an exclusive franchise. Hugh Baker, manager of the company, said the company would reduce its rates of $40 a year for business and $30 a year for house phones. The following nine members of the council voted to refer the bylaw to the committee on public utilities, which is now holding a public hearing on the subject of the bylaw. Ald. Evans, McLaren, Allan, Farrar, Anderson, A. J. Wright, Jutten and Lewis. They had but one of a majority. The firemen's request for one day off duty in every six instead of every eight days was approved of and three new men will have to be appointed. William Southam was given permission to complete the consumption of water on the city hospital grounds. Ald. Crerar and Sweeney got a motion through appointing a special committee to consider the advisability of building a freight spur connecting the city and other dock property with the various steam and electric railways. Ald. Jutten remarked that since a committee has already stated out a right of way it looked as if the Ald. Crerar and Sweeney wanted to help that corporation to get a special committee to consider the advisability of building a suitable way of recognizing the honor done to Hamilton by the elevation of Col. Gibson to the office of lieutenant-governor. A waterworks system will be installed on the mountain at a cost of $25,000.

Sudden Death.

Malachi Sager, an old resident of Beverley, died to-day.

The board of health this evening agreed to notify the Canadian Cotton Co. that it must discontinue the practice of emptying dye water into the bay. Medical Health Officer Roberts was instructed to devise some system whereby garbage receptacles could be removed from the street after being emptied by the scavengers. Referring to the fact that the milk bylaw was held up in the since a committee has already stated out a right of way it looked as if the Ald. Crerar and Sweeney wanted to help that corporation to get a special committee to consider the advisability of building a suitable way of recognizing the honor done to Hamilton by the elevation of Col. Gibson to the office of lieutenant-governor. A waterworks system will be installed on the mountain at a cost of $25,000.

Care Keep Running.

The street railway has decided to continue the operation of the early morning cars on Sundays.

T. H. Bennett has announced himself as an aldermanic candidate in Ward 4.

The Conservatives want Mayor Stewart to run in West Hamilton against Adam Zimmerman, M.P., and will not take no for an answer, although his worship has declined to enter the field. The convention for East Hamilton will be held Tuesday and for

The movement to oust City Engineer Barrow has petered out.

M. J. Ujvin reported to the police a recent theft of a box of jewels valued at $5000. The police today discovered that the box was in the possession of his wife.

Mrs. Barbara Wingfield, Stratford, died at the City Hospital today.

Dean Mahony has announced that $10,000 will be spent in beautifying the interior of St. Mary's Cathedral.

Daniel Mahony, 228 North Wellington-street, was arrested Saturday on the charge of insanity. When he arrived at the cells it was discovered that he was suffering from appendicitis.

W. B. Cockburn and R. J. Raspberry, two Flamboro milkmen, have been summoned on the charge of diluting the milk they sold in the city with water.

Evangelist Wants Guarantee.

Because the business manager of Evangelist Chapman stipulated that there should be a guarantee of $3000, the possibility that he would be called off. Another reason advanced for canceling the series is that they were timed to begin just in the heat of the Dominion election campaign, and it is feared that politics will overshadow the series.

Treasurer Leake of Hamilton waited on the Ontario Railway Board this morning and had a debenture bylaw of $9000 validated. The money is to be used for waterworks.

NOW THE UNEMPLOYED HOLD A CONVENTION

Delegates From Many Places Assemble in New York—Prominent Speakers Decline to Attend.

NEW YORK, N.Y., Sept. 28.—An extraordinary gathering began in this city to-day made up of delegates from various parts of the country to take part in a four days' conference, which had been arranged for their welfare.

Unlike delegates to ordinary conventions, however, these delegates had no special trains, but came instead on brake buses, beneath freight cars, on the "blind baggage" of the swift express or struggled in over dusty roads. They constitute the "first national convention of the unemployed."

"The national committee of the unemployed" is the official name of the organization, at the head of which is J. Eads How of St. Louis, who has come to be known as the millionaire hero. It was thru How's efforts that the plans for the convention were completed, and it was How who welcomed the delegates when they straggled to the committee headquarters at 20 Duane-street.

Many prominent men were invited to deliver addresses before the committee, among them President Roosevelt, W. J. Bryan, Judge Taft and John E. Redmond, the Irish leader, who is at present in this country, but all four have excused themselves on the ground of other engagements.

The health of the unemployed was the principal subject for discussion at to-day's meeting.

GEORGE IS HOME AGAIN.

In a Peculiar Boy—That's Why He Acted Peculiarly.

Madame Marthe Gendens says her little son George is a very peculiar boy and she cannot account for him absents himself from 502 Church-street for a week, except that he feared being chastised if he came home late, and because "he is very, very peculiar."

On Monday afternoon last week she sent George after a paper and she did not see him again until she ran across him accidentally on the Sunny-side walk at 11 o'clock Sunday night. He was so worn out that he has been in bed most of the time since.

He had been sleeping in a vacant building on the exhibition grounds, he said, and several people in that neighborhood had given him food.

Madame Gendens says she has whipped him a little sometimes when he was not good, but will overlook this misdemeanor because she is so glad to have him back.

George is 12 years old.

CITIZEN FINED FOR REFUSING TO HELP POLICE IN FIGHT.

BELLEVILLE, Sept. 28.—Three brothers named Lucas, who resisted arrest by a policeman, were fined $10 and costs each, this morning.

A bystander named Rickett, who refused to aid the policeman when called on, was fined $5 and costs.

Hon. George E. Foster, the Conservative candidate in North Toronto, will fire off the second gun of his campaign at McBean's Hall, corner of College-street and Brunswick-avenue, on Thursday, Oct. 1 at 8 o'clock. W. K. McNaught, M.L.A.; John Shaw, M.L.A., and other speakers will address the meeting.

TWO MEETINGS AT GALT TO HEAR R. L. BORDEN

Leader Speaks From Hall Mottos as Texts For His Address—Other Speakers.

GALT, Sept. 28.—(Special.)—Galt tonight gave R. L. Borden one of the best receptions of his tour.

A great crowd gathered at the C.P.R. depot at 8 o'clock and escorted the visitors to the opera house, which was already overcrowded, and it was necessary to throw open the rink across the way to accommodate those who could not get within reach of the main meeting. And not only were the two meetings large, but they were enthusiastic.

F. E. Scott was chairman at the opera house. There Mayor Patterson welcomed Mr. Borden on behalf of the citizens, and Walter McCutcheon read an address from the Conservative standpoint.

George Clare, the candidate, made the boast that he had always looked after the interests of Liberal and Conservative alike at Ottawa. The cry had been made that he was in bad health, but he assured them that he was strong in body again. Canada, he would depend upon whom the $25,000,000 goods imported from other countries. Mr. Borden was an able man and the people of Canada, Liberals and Conservatives alike, knew him to be an honest man.

Mr. Borden took for his text some of the mottoes on the walls. "Give work to the unemployed and bring back prosperity" was the first. Sir John A. Macdonald's conception of the N. P. was to foster home industry that our workers would not be driven into competition with the cheap labor of other countries, and in this connection he spoke of the allied question of immigration. We should see to it that the quality of our immigrants was of the highest and most desirable type. On his tour of the west he had seen where workers were most desirable.

Another motto was: "Has the Laurier government made you rich?" It would depend upon whom the question was addressed. If to the western land grabbers or the middlemen in the east the answer would be in the affirmative, but if to the great mass of the people they would have to return a decided "No."

This was a government of a hundred scandals, said Mr. Borden as he quoted some of the records.

Roblin is All Right.

Referring to the Roblin-Macdonald controversy Mr. Borden said The Globe had begun to realize that it had made a mistake in attacking Roblin, and had made an appeal to Mr. Borden to stop him. Mr. Roblin was capable of hitting back and had called attention to that which was undoubtedly a scandal, but which in the multiplicity of later scandals might never have been mentioned except for The Globe

What were the virtues that Mr. Borden preached and that Sir Wilfrid scoffed at? Was it a transcendent virtue, to be scoffed at, to say that the public lands should not be alienated, but should be administered, as the Whitney government had done, in the interests of the people, or that the ballot boxes should be protected?
