Mikado's Troops Threaten Frontier

—Clash is Imminent—Koreans Involved.

SEOUL, Korea, Oct. 15.—Serious complications affecting the peace of China and Japan threaten as the result of an engagement between Chinese and Japanese troops in Kantao, Northern Korea, in which several were killed or wounded.

The refusal of the Chinese war office to permit the pursuit of a detachment of soldiers who are said to have been the aggressors may result in the crossing of the frontier by Japanese troops.

Chinese soldiers are reported to have opened hostilities by firing upon a police station occupied by the Japanese troops, who were sent into Kantao as a guard for the Koreans resident there. The fighting that ensued lasted several hours.

THEIR DUBIOUS HONORS.

Cells of No. 8 Police Station Have Two Guests.

The first men to accept the enforced hospitality of the police station were two men who were arrested on Pape-avenue west across the city to make the call.

At 9:25 p.m. Patrol Sergeant Lydiatt introduced Robert P. McConnell, of Palmerston-avenue, whom he had found in East Queen-street, to Sergeant Rowe, and Station Dutyman "Bob" Steele showed him to one of the new cells which are not yet supplied with benches.

Fifteen minutes later P. C. Wallace (132) brought in Fred McDowell, who came all the way from 852 West King-street, to be found on Victor-avenue. Neither has ever appeared in court before and will be allowed to go this morning.

Inspector Miller was yesterday presented with a beautiful pair of shoes for the adornment of the new station by Rev. John Buehler of St. Clement's Church, Harper, Customs Broker, McInnch Building, Toronto.

City Engineer Rust will attend the meeting of the American Society of Municipal Improvements in Atlantic City on Oct. 20 to 23, and Controller Ward, president of the Canadian Union of Municipalities, will represent that body.

A writ was issued yesterday on the application of the Mattheawan Hospital, ordering Thaw to be produced in Pittsburgh for bankruptcy proceedings. The attorney-general will be consulted.

FOR PURE MILK.

Trades Council Decides to Help the Work Along.

The District Trades Council last evening discussed J. A. Simpson's suggestions for the better inspection of milk. He read a report of the methods employed by the City of Rochester, N.Y., in the matter of securing absolutely pure milk. It showed how even the care of the carrying utensils was rigid and even en route to the city dealers were compelled to use refrigerator cars.

For ten years before the city so rigidly enforced sanitary conditions at all stages of the dairy industry there were 475 children died under one year of age, while 246 died between the ages of one to five years. For the ten years from 1887 to 1896, during which time the new inspection of farm and dairy was put into effect, there were 342 children died under one year, and 1544 children died between the ages of one and five.

So forcibly did the importance of the subject impress the delegates that, on motion of the City of Rochester, N.Y., electrical workers, seconded by the Shipman of the leather workers, it was moved to have one thousand circulars printed and distributed to the dairymen of milk inspection, and urging all delegates to work for a similar system for Toronto.

Delegates Simpson called attention to the improper charity methods and urged a central bureau for distribution, showing that by having one head a more discriminating method could be followed out. He also stated that the number of unemployed in Toronto was greatly exaggerated and that the park board would have plenty of work this winter for those who really wished it.

Complaint was made of laxity in the wearing of label buttons, especially by bartenders.

Score's Quality Reputation.

A gentleman said yesterday in placing his order for his winter's, overmanly Chesterfield garments at $27.50, "I would rather pay you a little more for my clothes than I would to most tailors, for the confidence I feel that I will get the quality, both in the cloth and the making."

Hotel Winchester.

Those wishing a pleasant "home" for the winter before settling are advised to see the beautiful apartments in the Hotel Winchester, corner of Parliament and Winchester-streets. Handsome rooms on suite with private bath and most pleasant single apartments on the first floor flat. Reasonable terms. First-class cafe in connection.

Toronto and China Mission.

Seven returned missionaries will speak at the missionary gatherings to be held at three and eight p.m. in Central Presbyterian Church on Grosvenor-street, as representing six different provinces of China.

SUBMIT PEACE PROGRAM

The new Ottoman constitution foretold a reorganization of the judicial system and a remodeling of Turkish legislation in conformity with the principles of other European States, the British and the Russians, and in concert with Turkey, so soon as these reforms are realized, the best means of doing away with capitulations is declared also that these on this occasion could be taken to consider the abolition of the postoffice now maintained by foreign powers in Turkey.

The draft of this program makes no mention of the straits between the Black Sea and the Mediterranean, as well as the Dardanelles. But these straits have been a subject of protracted discussion between Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary, and Mr. Iswolsky, the Russian minister of foreign affairs. Mr. Iswolsky does not ask that this question be submitted to the conference; what he desires is that Great Britain and Russia should negotiate with Turkey for the opening of these straits to Russia.

To safeguard Turkey. Every desire to arrive at an understanding, but safeguarding at the same time the interests of Russia, has been shown. In the first place Russia wanted the right to send warships through the straits in time of peace, that is to say, when Turkey was not at war. Under special conditions and special restrictions. In reply Great Britain asked that the same right be accorded to all nations.

Arguing that foreign warships in the only desire to enter the Black Sea for legitimate purposes. Ultimately an agreement was reached by which the right of ingress and egress granted Russian warships shall be accorded on the same conditions to the ships of any other power not at war with Russia.

A Disagreeable Impression. SOFIA, Bulgaria, Oct. 15.—A disagreeable impression has been produced in diplomatic circles here by a circular note issued to-day from the Bulgarian ministry of justice, which orders that in the future the subjects of foreign powers in Bulgaria shall be treated on the same basis as natives; in other words, they are not longer to enjoy the intermediary of their consuls.

Terms of the Secret Treaty. BELGRADE, Serbia, Oct. 15.—The newspaper Devol List publishes what purports to be the text of a secret treaty between Bulgaria and Austria. There are three clauses in this treaty. In the first Austria authorizes Prince Ferdinand to declare the independence of Bulgaria and promises to maintain the Coburg dynasty in Bulgaria. The second provides that if complications arise from the announcement of the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, Prince Ferdinand will take the part of Austria. The third sets forth that the Austrian and Bulgarian governments will work in common accord in the affairs of the Balkan peninsula.

May Wage War Together. BELGRADE, Serbia, Oct. 15.—The Serbian National Assembly, by a vote of 100 to 50, has decided to support Montenegro in its enthusiastic reply to its message of greeting a few days ago. It was signed by M. Goykovic, president of the assembly, and concluded as follows:

"We believe that the time is ripe for Serbia and Montenegro to raise a common standard in defense of the sacred ideals of the Serbs. Let us wage war together, shoulder to shoulder, for it will be a holy war."

Warlike Aspirations.

CETTINJE, Montenegro, Oct. 15.—Six Austrian warships anchored to-day off Spalato, Dalmatia, a crown land of Austria-Hungary. They are not more than ten miles from the coast of Montenegro.

AT MCKENDRY'S.

Just the Place Where Ladies Can Be Satisfied.

At this season of the year ladies are naturally looking to their own and their families' requirements. In every progressive city such as Toronto undoubtedly is, there are plenty of opportunities for good purchases in all lines. Among those that claim public confidence none is more deserving than McKendry's, the well-known ladies' outfitters, at Nos. 226 and 228 Yonge-street. This firm recognizes its obligations to the public and is always ready and willing to share its bargain purchases with its customers. Hence its great and growing popularity.

The firm carries large and representative lines in all departments that appeal specially to ladies, and in the advent of the fall season McKendry's have provided attractions second to none in any department. The advertisement in and out of the company has a large and varied assortment of offerings for Saturday afternoon, which will make its premises one of the greatest attractions in the city for the ladies. There is no fact no department which does not appeal to the desire for excellent values at moderate prices.

The ladies are being disposed of in the most satisfactory manner. No customer who visits McKendry's will regret the visit, for it is the object of the firm to deserve the reputation it has already acquired.

JURY TO BE LOCKED UP.

Surprise in the Trial of C. W. Morse, Ex-Banker.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The first day of the trial of Charles W. Morse, the banker and promoter who came to grief in the financial panic of last year, and Alfred H. Curtis, former president of the National Bank of North America, which began to-day before Judge Hough and a federal jury, developed a surprise, when it was brought out that the jury will be locked up each night, and will also be closely watched during the trial by secret service men. Witnesses will also be shadowed. The defense lawyers object strongly.

Katherine Wilson, Morse's secretary, it was brought out, had full power of attorney to handle his accounts.

WAS ANGRY AT EJECTION AND SHOTS TWO MEN

WINNIPEG, Oct. 15.—(Special.)—Innocent at being robbed in a foreign boarding house in Winnipeg, which he alleges he was thrown out with considerable violence, John Omski, who was a member of the Winnipeg Police Force, shot and killed two men, and was himself wounded.

HAS EDITOR THE LETTERS?

MR. FOSTER DOUBTS IT

Would Like J. A. Macdonald to Produce the Documents—Rousing Conservative Rally.

It was a big success, both in attendance and enthusiasm, at the Association Hall Conservative meeting last night. The place was filled to standing order and a big platform full faced the big audience. Thomas Hooke was in the chair and besides the speakers, E. B. Oeler and other leading Conservatives surrounded him. It would be difficult to say whether E. B. Oeler or George Foster's speech elicited most interest, but for a young politician Mr. Bristol delivered himself of a very able and effective address.

"Where is the Rev. J. A. Is his soul also in the future?" was the question by Foster and others in a storm of derisive cheering. "This modern Peter the Hermit, this Coeur de Leon, where is his soul under such a state of things as these?" asked Mr. Foster, after recounting the Pugsley scandal.

Degrees of Courage. "I circulate in North Toronto. I don't stand by on my platform," Mr. Foster asserted. "There are many facts, there is my appeal, that is my platform. I am open and above board. Can my opponent say the same?"

Then he has called to his aid the one time reversed gentleman, now editor of The Toronto Globe, who goes to the fight as if he enjoyed it. There is one or two things strike me about him. His course is in inverse ratio to his distance from his opponent. In The Globe office he is bold, blustering, untruthful. When he gets on another platform than his own, he gets more blustering. When he gets as far away as Windsor he almost becomes a sort of distributor of falsehood.

He seemed to produce the letter said to have been written by Mr. Foster and published without date in The Globe. In parliament, if such a charge had been laid on the table, if added in evidence by his opponent, he would have been obliged to produce it.

The Rev. J. A. knows a thing or two," said Mr. Foster. "He does not produce 'Hall, Queen-street and Crawford, Ald. McGhie, John Tytler, E. H. Randell and Charles Hurst."

Mr. Foster went on to say that if Mr. Macdonnell was making the same statement he made at first about him, and he seemed to be constantly repeating the same thing, it was just as false now as then, he went around the country repeating it.

LABOR NOMINEE PAID TRIBUTE TO MACDONELL

But That Was Before Mr. O'Donoghue Had Political Aspirations in South Toronto.

The fact that the West Toronto Liberals have so far been unable to find anyone to lead a forlorn hope in that riding against E. B. Oeler's 1900 majority, is having a deleterious effect on the campaign. It was an audience of only about 50 persons which gathered in O'Donoghue's hall, Queen-street and Crawford, last night, but they were all solid voters and charged with enthusiasm.

John Laxton was chairman and besides the candidate there were on the platform A. C. Macdonnell, Hon. Thos. Crawford, Ald. McGhie, John Tytler, E. H. Randell and Charles Hurst.

Mr. Oeler attacked the government's administration of western timber lands, whereby huge areas had fallen into the hands of speculators at absurdly low figures, while fine grazing land and coal areas had also been handed out to party workers. The government had strenuously fought to shut off investigations likely to injure the get-rich-quick program of its followers.

Mr. Macdonnell declared that the people were anxiously waiting for election day, that they might make a correct government. Expenditures in the marine department had increased 500 per cent, and gross extravagance also ruled in the militia department. For years a new barracks had been promised Toronto, but there were no signs of it yet.

Hon. Thos. Crawford revealed unsuspected satirical powers when he spoke of Rev. J. A. Macdonnell as overlooking the misconduct of the government in the fervor of religious ecstasy. Laurier had not tried to finish evil-doers.

Mr. Randall scored a point by reading a letter from some time ago to Mr. Macdonnell by his present opponent, Mr. O'Donoghue, expressing hearty appreciation of the "willingness you display on occasions to render every service you could to forward the interests of organized labor."

Another letter from Harvey Hall, legislative representative of the railway men's union, thanked Mr. Macdonnell for his support of legislation in their behalf, especially in opposition to the Lemieux bill.

Mr. Tytler, Charles Hurst and Ald. McGhie also spoke.
