

FRIDAY MORNING

Lacrosse

Delegates Arrive

Note and Comment

The advance guard of the C. L. A. delegates arrived in town yesterday and as usual were at the Iroquois Hotel last night to pay their respects to the popular secretary, W. H. Hall, who was on hand to issue credentials at so much per. There was very little stir among the delegates, mainly on account of there being no contest for either the presidency or vice-presidency. Mr. Thomas Doyle of Newmarket and Mr. Oscar Eby of Hespeler getting into the respective offices by acclamation.

Among the old-timers who put in an appearance were: Ex-Presidents Major Craig, M. A. O'Loughlin, John P. Lennox and John Miller, and also Honorary ex-President Francis Nelson. President Doyle and Eby had not arrived at a late hour. However, they will be in the paddock at post-time to-day.

The lobby at the hotel was very much N. L. U. for a time, as President Thompson and Manager Murphy of the Toronto were on the job before leaving for Montreal, where they attend the N. L. U. convention, Saturday. Ernie Menary of the Toronto, together with a couple of last year's players, were also there. Of course, Charles Quenneville of the Toronto was right there laughing and the redoubtable Charlie Lowe from St. Kitts was much in the limelight. As yet neither of the big teams has been able to get the fast home field's signature on a contract.

To only nine days after the month of March the outdoor ball season is starting to-day in Toronto. Little early, isn't it?

F. C. Mills of the Hamilton Times, one of the sports editors whom the division court declared a real editor, was in the city last night. He does not think much of the new Toronto Hamilton-Scarboro Baseball League.

With our usual "Northern" circuit races in these parts of the Dominion to be supplemented this year by a 60-day meeting in British Columbia, not to forget Winnipeg and other north-west incidents, Canada is making up nicely for the aching cold across the line, caused by Gov. Hughes and some more alleged reformers.

Sporting Editor World: Kindly inform me through the columns of your paper the decision of this matter: A bet B that Longboat beats Shrub in the Marathon. Which wins? J. E. Wright, 96 Wellington-street, Ottawa.

Ans.: The bet is drawn. As neither man was placed in the race, the stipulation being as to which would make the better showing, B would have undoubtedly been the winner.

It is announced that Pat Powers has declared that Tom Longboat must keep his contract to race Aky Shrub in 15 miles April 17. Otherwise the Indian will be barred from the thousand dollar Marathon circuit.

A long-distance walker, announcing himself as W. J. White, arrived in the city last night, having hooped off the way from Kingston in two days. He was in splendid spirits.

Kingston Road Race.
KINGSTON, April 8.—The second five-mile road race for the Nelles Trophy will be run to-morrow morning. Cadet Watts of Toronto won the only race last year, covering the distance in 23:45. Fourteen men, including one West End harrier from Toronto, entered the race. The winner gets a medal and if he beats the time set by Watts last year, is the holder of the five-mile championship until his time is beaten.

Twelve Ontario Cities.
Where Semi-Ready Stores Will Be Opened This Year.

One objection against Semi-ready tailoring on the part of dealers is that there is not sufficient profit to them; that the profit is only half what they make in selling ready-made clothes, on which they can make their own selling price. They lose sight of the fact that every customer becomes a regular customer, and there is no possible risk or loss in selling guaranteed clothes, hand-tailored, and inspected at every stage.

Twelve Semi-ready stores, or agencies, will be opened this year in these twelve cities in Ontario. It is the intention of the company to open stores in these towns in the event of their not selling to some dealer during the season. These are the "open" cities, where Semi-ready stores will be opened during the year:

Kingston, Stratford,
Guelph, Chatham,
St. Thomas, St. Thomas,
Woodstock, Sarnia,
Brockville, Galt,
Sault Ste. Marie, Barrie.

After a service of 20 years in the provincial agricultural department, W. B. Varley has resigned and will become secretary of the Lambton Golf Club.

The business man and lawyer,
The doctor and the clerk,
Will find them right and proper,
For evening dress, or work.

The Halifax contingent have arrived, and are quartered at Stanley Barracks. Everyone up to the middleweights must be on in case of default.

BIG C.L.A. CONVENTION TO BE HELD TO-DAY

Meeting Will Be Held at Labor Temple—Tumecshs Organize For Coming Season.

How things change in one short year. Last year the night before the C.L.A. convention the Iroquois, which is the headquarters of the lacrosse enthusiasts, was crowded, but things were different last night, the majority present being candidates for office or the usual hangers-on. Thus to-day, the 21st annual convention of the C.L.A., promises to be the quietest and, shall one add, the most orderly held in many years.

The absence of the paper clubs causes many to stay away, but at that the convention to-day should have a large representative, as many will come in the morning trains. The convention is called for 10 o'clock, at the Labor Temple, and the majority present being candidates, last year's council will meet at 3 o'clock. Two new clubs from St. Kitts made application for membership last night, they being Oracles in the junior series, and the Lincolns in the intermediate series.

The presidency goes to Tommy Doyle of Newmarket by acclamation, and first vice to Oscar Eby of Hespeler. Besides the council, the only office that will be contested will be second vice-president, Woody Tegar, Blaney McGuire and F. C. Washorne being the candidates. For the council there are 13 nominated, but three will have to remain under shelter for another year, as only ten can be elected. The candidates are as follows:

President: Fred Hamblin; first vice-president, Woody Tegar, Blaney McGuire and F. C. Washorne; second vice-president, Jack Kelly, Brantford; C. W. Mitchell, Dundas; W. J. Dalton, West Toronto; J. K. Forsythe, Toronto; D. McMillan, Beaverton; W. A. Reddock, Toronto; A. E. Rankin, Owen Sound, and Dr. W. A. Groves, Fergus.
