Note and Comment

The magnitude of the Canadian Canoe Association regatta that comes off this week on Toronto Bay is scarcely understood by the lay follower of aquatics. The Toronto Canoe Club, probably the largest organization of paddlers in the world, are conducting the event on Saturday with headquarters, of course, at their own splendid club house, and nothing is being left undone towards making the regatta a success.

The contestants are all winners, being from three divisions, the Western at Orillia, the Northern at Ottawa and the Eastern at St. John's, N. B., about 150 paddlers in all, most of them appearing in more than one event. The war canoe race should prove a spectacular feature with nine craft of fifteen paddlers in each.

The Canadian Canoe Association is a purely national organization, having been formed six years ago to propagate friendly competition among amateur paddlers. Unlike the professional canoeists claim the distinction of a total freedom from professionalism. They point out that there never have been any money paddlers, the Toronto professional canoeists have been a credit to the community.

It should be said that everything in connection with the C.C.A. regatta is always on the free invitation list, while the winners are rewarded with valuable prizes. Saturday's will be Toronto's first glimpse of the Canadian Canoe Association's regatta, the division meet has been decided on the bay.

At his night show after he boxed three ex-amateurs Jack Johnson repeated his speech of the afternoon and appeared just about as pleased to get the chance as he was relieved to get the finish. Mistah Johnson is somewhat of an orator after his own style and his auditors have the satisfaction of hearing what he says even if it is not one side of the world's championship controversy.

Johnson told of his various forfeits posted and gave little more attention to James J. Jeffries than to Mr. Stanley Ketchell. In fact, the black champion reduced himself to the same level at the finish. He told of his match with Ketchell in October, which he wished would be won by the best man, the winner to meet Jeffries, and again, "May the best man win." This pleased the crowd and the ebony-headed dealer in gold and jots was rewarded with considerable applause.

Johnson showed the utmost confidence in handling his green opponents and the force of his blow was best shown when he doubled up Dolman with an apparent light tap on the stomach.

When Johnson was here two winters ago he condescended to his Toronto friend, the president of the Ball Club, that he would sure defeat Tommy Burns, and James Johnson, when eating chicken yesterday with his distinguished guest, was given a similar tip in regard to Jeffries. If the big fellow met the Pelee one will get down again accordingly.

Jack Johnson Boxes.
About 1000 saw Jack Johnson box four heavyweights last night at Hamilton's Point. Frank Laury, J. Farmer and W. Dolman, who won the Canadian championship last fall, there were a couple of preliminaries besides. The black champion performed creditably, displaying clever defence and powerful punishing powers. The ex-amateurs were no match for him.

Fall Boxing Tournament.
Thomas Hughes, vice-president of the City Amateur Boxing Association, who is on his honeymoon trip to the far west, came to Toronto this week in regard to bringing someone to Toronto this fall for the sixteenth semi-annual tournament, which is now only a few weeks away. Mr. Brownlee writes that the old champion lightweight will be pleased to see Hughes, who was an autumn, and says that he will bring along three good amateurs to carry off the prizes in the heavier classes.

Grand Circuit Summary.
KALAMAZOO, Aug. 4.—Margin lauded her second $1000 stake of the season when she won the feature of today's racing, a mud-splashed mile. She finished first in only two of the heats, but the others were divided, and she was best in the summary, a race ending with five heats under the rules. She was an even-money favorite against the field before the race.

Beaten in Ten Innings Game Barry Has Shade on Doc Newton

Rochester Takes Double-Header From Baltimore—Other Games Postponed.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 4.—(Special.)—Barry and Newton engaged in a great pitchers' battle this afternoon, with honors about even. Both were touched up for hits at various points of the game, but tightened with men on bases and held the plate safe when it looked as tho runs must go over. Barry showed lots of class in the fourth when he struck out Mahling, Mulken and Prick and again in the sixth, when Toronto filled the bases with nobody out and got but one run. Anderson saved the game for Providence in the seventh, when he made a hard catch for the third out, jumping high in the air and pulling down the ball with one hand with a man running. The battle was a stalling one. Phelan was the star with the bat, and his hitting gave Providence both runs. With one out in the first he hit left for three bases and scored on Phelan's single. Toronto tied the score in the sixth. Vandergrift opened with a single over second and took second on Barry's wild throw to Rock. In the eighth, filling the bases, Weldy grounded to Richey and was doubled with Lelley thru Rock and Anderson. Vandergrift scoring.

In the tenth Prick reached third but was run out by Barry. Courtney and Peterson on Vand's drive. Barry opened Grey's half of the tenth with a hit, but was forced at second by Moran. The latter was caught off first by Newton, but made second by good dodging. Phelan hit safely to right and Moran beat Grimshaw's throw to the plate by a yard. Rudolph was put out of the grounds for back talk in the eighth. The battle was a stalling one, plays cropping out in all directions by both teams. Score:
