

WOMEN DISAGREE WITH FILM CENSOR

Executive of Local Council Thinks "Damaged Goods" is Educational.

NATIONAL SERVICE

Plan Campaign to Educate Women as to Value of Their Vote.

An emergency meeting of the executive of the Local Council of Women was held yesterday afternoon at the Sherbourne House Club. Mrs. A. M. Huestis in the chair. The object of the call was to consider the request of the National Service Board of Canada, that the National Council, thru its local councils, take up the special work of the distribution of posters in connection with war saving bonds. Mr. Mosier of the national service board addressed the meeting, explaining the methods and work to be done in order to make the service a success. The council pledged themselves to comply with the campaign, the date of which will be published later.

Mrs. Torington was the bearer of a resolution from the thrift committee asking that the local council co-operate with them in the work which they may undertake and that a representative be appointed from the local council to their committee. After some discussion, in which the different functions of the thrift committee and the local council were gone into, Mrs. A. M. Huestis was appointed to represent her society at the thrift conference. It was also decided to send to the thrift committee a copy of the letter sent by the government to the national council asking that body to take over the work of distributing the posters on war saving bonds. This was done for the purpose of making clear the specific work to be undertaken by the council. The literature to be distributed by the thrift committee will principally relate to the conservation of food.

An announcement was made that the Women's College of Hospital intend to hold a bazaar, and the co-operation of the council was asked, with the understanding that there will be a division of the proceeds. It was decided that the offer of the hospital be accepted. The question of the film, "Damaged Goods," was discussed, and several of the members who had seen the production considered it educational along the lines of good results, a resolution favoring its being shown was passed. The meeting also expressed itself as approving the campaign now in progress under Dr. Gordon Bates and his committee for the prevention of venereal disease.

Mrs. A. B. Ormsby announced that on the 6th and 7th of September a non-partisan conference would be held at the Y. C. T. U. Hall in the course of which Mrs. McKinley, an independent woman member for Edmonton, Alberta, would give an address. Dr. Margaret Patterson thought that the conference should take up the work of educating women on the value of the vote, and suggested that speakers be sent to meetings of the various auxiliaries of the National Council of Women. Mrs. Campbell Meyers suggested a speaker from the council should address the affiliated societies on the same subject at the meetings of the coming season.

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

"THE BIRD OF PARADISE."

After giving seven years to the now famous "Bird of Paradise," coming to the Alexandra next week, Ben M. Giroux, company manager, believes that a good show may be kept good for an indefinite period if it is not worked to death in its infancy. "The Bird of Paradise" has made four after four, always coming in at the end of the season with a fortune. Mr. Giroux thinks the preservation of the play is due largely to the fact that it has never been hawked about by second, third, fourth or eighth companies.

"THE FLAME."

Owing to the size of the company and the production, Richard Walton Tully's latest play, "The Flame," has gained fame as one of the greatest productions ever seen on the stage. "The Flame" comes with a splendid company and the original production of the Royal Alexandra Theatre for one week, commencing Monday, September 3.

"A DAUGHTER OF THE GODS."

Supremely perfect in its detail, with a story that both entrances and staggers the audience, the production of "A Daughter of the Gods" will have been ever before attempted and bids fair to remain for some time to come as a monument to the art of the theatre. Fox, and as a period from which will be computed anything that aims toward the beautifully superlative in film stories. "A Daughter of the Gods" is a fantasy without apology. For in this picture the wonders of Aladdin and his magic lamp are out-rivaled. "A Daughter of the Gods" will be offering at the Grand Opera House during the period of the fair, with a matinee every day.

LOEW'S.

The rivalry between an army and navy lieutenant is the basic plot of "Eating the Fricas," the feature production coming week at Loew's Yonge Street Theatre and Winter Garden in which Gail Kane is starred. Winifred Gilman and her dancing nymphs, in spectacular dances, will be the feature vaudeville attraction, with the College Quintette, high-class singers, as the added attraction. Bookings include Jack Kennedy & Co., presenting a comedy sketch, "Don't Do It"; the Aerial Ballets, in thrilling and novel dances; the "The Four Musketeers"; Sullivan and Mason, "The Fun Makers"; Fred James, in a novelty turn, and several comedy feature films.

NORA BAYES AT SHEA'S.

For next week the management of Shea's Theatre offers as the headline attraction Nora Bayes, America's favorite singing comedienne, who will offer a repertoire of new songs and display her assortment of stunning gowns. Miss Bayes is assisted by Irving Fisher, with Harry Aket, Mabel and Doris Gail Kane in supporting roles. The feature production will be a melange of mirth, music and melody. Jimmie Hussey and William Worsley, in "The Fox Hunt," have a new original comedy. The acting is remarkably fine. In the cast are Vera Lewis, Sam de Grassie, Mae Constantine, Edna Farnham, Robert Harron, Olga Grey, Josephine Crowley, Frank Bennett as King Charles, Marjorie Wilson, Billy Marshall as a high priest, Alfred Paget as Belshazzar, Thelma Owen as his fate on the tragic power of which the book is full. Suffice it to say that that power is brought out as cogently and convincingly as possible in the photodrama to be seen at the Strand next week.

"HEDDA GABLER" AT STRAND.

On Monday and Tuesday next "Hedda Gabler," the photoplay version of Ibsen's immortal book, will be presented at the Strand Theatre, and should prove a stupendous draw. There is no need to dilate on the tragic power of which the book is full. Suffice it to say that that power is brought out as cogently and convincingly as possible in the photodrama to be seen at the Strand next week.

"HAPPY GO LUCKY GIRLS."

At the Gayety Theatre next week Sammie Howe will present his new burlesque show. The feature is headed by Mr. Howe himself, and he has surrounded himself with an unusually talented organization of artists, including Helen Carr, Frankie Fay, Joe Kane, Frederick Starr, Ethel May, Stef Anderson, Edith Mellor, Ed Malton, Geo. Meyers, Lew Harris, Tom Packard, Chester Weeks and others, and a chorus of Broadway beauties.

THE BLESSING OF A HEALTHY BODY

Has Not Had an Hour's Sickness Since Taking "Fruit-a-lives."

MR. MARRIOTT. 75 Lees Avenue, Ottawa, Ont. August 9, 1915. "Fruit-a-lives" has done for me. Three years ago I began to feel run-down and tired, and suffered very much from liver and kidney trouble. Having read of "Fruit-a-lives," I thought I would try them. The result was surprising. During the 2 1/2 years past, I have taken them regularly and would not change for anything. I have not had an hour's sickness since I commenced using "Fruit-a-lives," and I know now what I haven't known for good many years—that is, the blessing of a healthy body and clear thinking brain.

MR. MARRIOTT.

50c a box, 6 for $2.50. Trial size, 25c. At dealers or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives, Limited, Ottawa.

PAT WHITE AT STAR.

Theatregoers have a week of fun in store for them when Pat White and his Gaiety Girls make their appearance at the Star Theatre on Monday. White, as the added attraction, will present a comedy sketch, "Don't Do It"; the Aerial Ballets, in thrilling and novel dances; the "The Four Musketeers"; Sullivan and Mason, "The Fun Makers"; Fred James, in a novelty turn, and several comedy feature films.

"INTOLERANCE."

D. W. Griffith has produced another mighty screen triumph—"Intolerance," which will have its presentation at Massey Hall during the week of the Toronto Exhibition, commencing at 8.15 tonight. "Intolerance" shows that thru all the ages the same passions have obtained, the same joys and sorrows, and Mr. Griffith symbolizes them by the grade endlessly rocking. In each case the events shown are caused by intolerance. The acting is remarkably fine. In the cast are Vera Lewis, Sam de Grassie, Mae Constantine, Edna Farnham, Robert Harron, Olga Grey, Josephine Crowley, Frank Bennett as King Charles, Marjorie Wilson, Billy Marshall as a high priest, Alfred Paget as Belshazzar, Thelma Owen as his fate on the tragic power of which the book is full. Suffice it to say that that power is brought out as cogently and convincingly as possible in the photodrama to be seen at the Strand next week.

REGENT'S FINE BILL.

Great interest is being taken this week in the picture account of Larry Evans' novel, "Then I'll Come Back to You," showing at the Regent. Alice Brady is charming in the role of Barbara, and Steve Sherman, as Steve O'Mara is popular. "Tribby" is offering for next week, with Clara Kimball Young as Tribby, and Wilton Lackaye as Svengali.

GOOD BILL AT MADISON.

Everybody who remembers "The Squaw Man," which achieved so sensational and stupendous a success for the same company, in motion picture form, should make a point of seeing its sequel, "The Squaw Man's Son," which will be presented at the Madison Theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Wallace Reid and Anita King are the co-stars of this great Laskey production.
