IN presenting to the people of Newfoundland a Directory of ST. JOHN'S, HARBOR GRACE, and CARBONEAR, the Compiler wishes to state that he has used his best efforts to render the publication complete and trustworthy.

In a work of the kind it is almost impossible to prevent some errors from creeping in, but he trusts these will be found few and unimportant. He will be grateful to any who will point out such mistakes, in order that in a future edition they may be rectified. The Compiler wishes to acknowledge his obligation to all who have assisted him, by giving the desired information, specially to George LeMessurier, Esq., acting Postmaster General; the members of the Colonial Government; and to the Rev. M. Harvey for the introduction descriptive of the Capital, so readily furnished gratuitously; to the Magistrates of Harbor Grace and Carbonear; and to the General Public, for the uniform courtesy with which they responded to all inquiries, and last, but by no means least, to those who, by their subscriptions and advertisements, have supported him in his enterprise.
