Mansfield's Will Leaves All to Widow.

MR. MANSFIELD AT THE AGE OF SIX

AT THE AGE OF SIX

MRS. MANSFIELD

NEW LONDON, Conn., Sept. 3.—From all parts of the country and from foreign lands expressions of sympathy over the death of Richard Mansfield, at his summer home, Seven Acres, are pouring in here today to the wife and relatives of the dead actor.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—"After the payment of my just debts it is my desire that my entire estate, both real and personal, go to my wife, Beatrice Cameron Mansfield."

This one of the shortest on record, is the last will and testament of Richard Mansfield, the actor. It was made in 1894, when Mrs. Mansfield, who had then been the wife of the actor two years, retired from the stage. No will was made after that time. No codicil was added. As he thought then he thought when he died, and the widow under a paragraph was named the sole executrix without bond. The will of the dead actor is no surprise to those who knew him intimately, and how much he loved the woman that bears his name. It is a refutation of the claim that the man who was a genius and an artist never knew his own mind; that he was not consistent.

No provision was made for the boy, the actor leaving it entirely to the mother to provide for him.

That Mr. Mansfield had implicit confidence in his wife is understood better by the fact that in the years he was piling up money until he was rated almost a millionaire, he kept none of it for himself, leaving it to his wife as fast as he made it.

Probably worth $100,000 when he was married, his first act almost was to do it to his wife. In the years that followed, as his seasons showed profits of from $50,000 to $60,000, the money was invested as his judgment indicated in real estate, but the deeds were made out in his wife's name.

The three New London estates and the home on Riverside drive, his rights to all plays, scenery, his stock and cash in the banks will amount to about $500,000, with some $60,000 life insurance. Of this, all save the life insurance policy and cash and bonds were Mrs. Mansfield's before his death, so that the property of which the widow will continue to reside at Seven Acres.

The widow has made no plans for the future. The Riverside drive home has been for sale for some time. It is said the widow probably will continue to reside at Seven Acres.

She is prostrated over the death of her husband. The marriage was one of the real love matches of the stage.

John D. Roddick, Lyndhurst, Tells His Experience

After Two Years' Suffering With Lame Back and Weak Kidneys, Was Cured by Dr. Hamilton.

Lyndhurst, Ont., Sept. 7.—The following statement made by Mr. Roddick, lumber merchant, tells of the remarkable knowledge possessed by Dr. Hamilton:

"Two years ago I had grippe which settled in my back and kidneys. I was sickly and very miserable, suffered great pain and inconvenience. Different remedies were tried without benefit and then I decided to try Dr. Hamilton's Mandrake and Bitternut Pills. I derived immense good from their use in short time. When two boxes were used I was immeasurably better. Today I am well. Neighbors suffering from kidney and back trouble have also been cured by Dr. Hamilton's Pills which I am convinced is the best medicine for regulating and cleansing the system. They are very mild, but do the work just the same."

Nothing so certain in diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels, and kidneys as Dr. Hamilton's Pills, 25 cents, at all dealers.

ANTI-ALCOHOLIC LEAGUE

Quebec Organization is Doing Splendid Aggressive Work.

(Montreal Witness.)

The Quebec Anti-Alcoholic League during the brief period of its existence, has been doing much good work in the interests of temperance. Through its influence all the liquor licenses, except two, in the County of Charlevoix, have been cancelled. The league is also vigorously carrying out the early-closing movement in Quebec. It has also been successful in help from the federal government in the distribution of M. Edmond Rousseau's work on "Alcohol and Alcoholism."

In the month of May last it submitted to the council of public instruction a series of resolutions on the subject of special temperance teaching in the schools, and by order of the council, this teaching will be inaugurated in the Roman Catholic schools this autumn. The league confidently expects that the Quebec government will place the above-named work of M. Rousseau in all the schools.

The Quebec league has also decided to seek some practical amendments to the Quebec license law at the next session of the legislature.

SAVES LITTLE LIVES

Most liquid medicines advertised to cure stomach and bowel troubles and summer complaints contain opiates and are dangerous. When the mother gives Baby's Own Tablets to her little one she has the guarantee of a government analyst that this medicine does not contain one particle of opiate or narcotic. Therefore, she can feel that her little ones are safe. There is no other medicine can equal Baby's Own Tablets in preventing summer complaints or curing them if they come on suddenly. Keep a box of Tablets always at hand—they may save your child's life.

Mrs. C. E. Hancock, Raymond, Alta., says: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for summer complaints, constipation and sleeplessness, and always with the best results." Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

GOOD CROP REPORT

New York, Sept. 6.—Bradstreet's state of trade tomorrow will say: Canada trade reports are good; Wheat crop advice are more reassuring as the harvest, which is now general, advances, and there is less apprehension that tight money will unfavorably affect commercial operations. Collections, however, still show a dragging tendency the country over. Failures this week number fifteen, as against fourteen in this week a year ago.

CALLS REV. DR. HILL

A message was received from Yarmouth last night to the effect that at a meeting of the congregation of St. John's Presbyterian church there a unanimous call was extended to Rev. Allan M. Hill, Ph. D., of Fairville.

St. John's church is one of the most important in western Nova Scotia and numbers among its former pastors such men as Rev. Anderson Rogers, now of the United Church, New Glasgow, and Rev. Dr. E. D. Miller, convener of the foreign mission committee for the eastern section of the Presbyterian church.

Rev. Dr. Hill has been in charge of the Fairville church for the last six years and is popular here. He was communicated with last night and said that he had received a wire, the contents of which were the same as given. He declined to say anything further in the matter than that he is considering the call.

Frank Whetzel, formerly of this city but more recently of London (Eng.), passed through St. John on his way to Toronto Wednesday last on a business trip.
