players fraternity it will be a strike not against the National commission, but against the very game of baseball itself," evidence.

Said President John K. Tener, of the "Well, said President John resident John K. Tener, of the well, sir," said the lawyer, "do al league in a statement issued in know the plaintiff and defendant?" National league in a statement issued in New York, in reply to a strike threat made by President David Fultz, of the fraternity.

"I cannot conceive that young men like our players can talk of attempting to tie up their business over such a trivial matter as is involved in the dispute between the players' fraternity and the minor leagues. A strike of this kind would simply mean that big league players would have to bear the entire brant of it. The class AA and A minor leagues were use could easily pick up sixteen men for their teams while the big leagues were idle.

"Everything that has been accom-in the words!" answered the sailor, "what! Not know the meaning of 'plaintiff' and 'defendant?' continued the lawyer. "A pretty fellow, you, to come where on board the ship it was this man struck the other?"

"Abaft the binnacle," said the sailor.

"Abaft the binnacle," said the sailor.

"Abaft the binnacle," said the lawyer. "What do you mean by that?"

"A pretty fellow, you," responded the sailor, the other as a lawyer and don't know what 'abaft the binnacle."

plished for the benefit and advantage the player has come through the Natio al commission. Mr. Fultz says the cor al commission. Mr. Fultz says the commission always has been fair and just. I will go farther than that and say that in dispute between players and club owners the commission always has been fair and just. I will go farther than that and say that in dispute between players and club owners the commission always has leaned toward the player and now these same players threaten to call a strike because of some unimportant minor league issues."

A sailor was called into court to give "Well, sir," said the lawyer, "do you KIDNEYS FAIL TO WORK "My husband used GIN PILLS for Backache and Kidney Disease which formerly troubled him a great deal. The pain in his back was dreadful and the kidneys failed to do their work properly. After taking ene dose of GIN PILLS he found them to be exactly what he needed, and after taking two boxes of GIN PILLS was completely cured. We heartily recommend GIN PILLS at every opportunity to our friends and relatives.
