The Man In The Street
 Nice weather for recruiting, eh, what? Some of us who have not seen our way clear to enlist, would welcome conscription; it would take the responsibility of making the decision off our shoulders.
 Are the critics of the Patriotic Fund subscribers? If not, what right have they to kick? There is no law compelling the citizens to provide a patriotic fund for any one.
 But the generous minded citizens are doing so willingly, and every one is going to have his chance to chip in next week.

 Late despatches indicate that the Grand Duke will soon again be in the line-up, this time as a pitch hitter in the Balkans.
 The Jail is Still There
 Although a prisoner picked the locks of the county jail and escaped, up to the present it has not encouraged any of his former associates to make off with the building.
 A new appointment probable at central is a lock-expert. We have a photograph expert, a fingerprint specialist, and a boy artist for purchasing revolvers—no doubt a course in lockology will be instituted.
 "Come on and Listen"
 The cub reporter was caught whistling an air which he long ago "done its bit" in vaudeville. It grated upon the ear of the music editor who queried, "Say, frenchie, what's the idea of reviving that ancient relic?"
 "Why, haven't you heard that Boston won the series?" cheerfully chirped the cub.
 "What's that got to do with it?" growled the editor.
 "Well, this tune I'm whistling is 'Alexander's Rag-time Band,' and then it was no wonder the cub ducked."

W. S. FISHER HOME
 Speaks of the War as it is Viewed in England
 After a visit to England where he and his wife visited his son, Lieut. Don Fisher, who had been wounded in France, W. S. Fisher returned to his home here today. Mrs. Fisher will remain for a while longer in England. Mr. Fisher said the confidence of the ultimate triumph of the Allied arms, but were settled down to the long drawn out struggle. All were convinced that there would be no peace until Germany was crushed. The many friends of the patriots who were cheerful despite their injuries.  FOOTBALL LEAGUE OPENED
 Considerable interest was shown this morning in the opening of the School Boys Football League. The game was played on the Marathon grounds by Winter street and Albert street schools. The former won 9 to 0. The game was well contested. The league promises to furnish good sport. The second game which was to have been played between King Edward and St. Michael's teams was awarded to the former by default as their opponents did not put in an appearance.

 C. R. Lewis, passenger agent for the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway, their daughter, Mrs. Lewis, and her little daughter left on Wednesday evening to return to Minneapolis and Mrs. Kreppel, wife of Dr. C. Woods of East St. John, and they were in the city to attend Mr. Woods' funeral.
 A VACANT POSITION
 While several Conservative politicians are said to be working for the appointment as superintendent of the Municipal Home, it is understood that the majority of the commissioners are strongly in favor of making this appointment on the grounds of merit instead of political pull and are considering the appointment of the eldest son of the late superintendent, a young man who is said to be thoroughly familiar with the work and capable of carrying on and keeping the institution up to the same high standard which marked Mr. Woods' regime.

NOSE OF GERMAN SHELL SENT HOME AS WAR SOUVENIR
 Piece of Deadly Missile Which Burst Near Corporal Walter Wilson
 The brass nose of a large German shell which killed one man and injured three is now in the possession of Thomas L. Wilson of Chesley street. It was sent to him by his brother, Corporal Walter Wilson, from Belgium.
 A letter received a few days ago explained that the souvenir was on its way here, and also gave particulars of how it came into his possession. The shell, he said, burst some distance from where he was engaged, and sent its deadly hail in every direction. A large piece passed close to him and struck four men, killing one outright and injuring the other three. Later, when he had an opportunity, he dug it up and discovered that it was the nose of the shell. He placed it in a case used for holding butter and sent it home.
 The brass nose weighs two pounds and thirteen ounces. It attracted considerable attention when shown to people, especially when it was recalled what deadly work it had accomplished.
 Corporal Wilson wrote of the terrific fighting in which they engaged in the trenches. He said that for three days and nights they never let up. The roar of the guns was incessant and was hard on the soldiers' nerves. The only way to get an idea of what it was like was to recall the most terrific clap of thunder and then try to realize that it consisted of like that for three days without stopping.
