

EDUCATION BODY ENDS SESSIONS

Devotional Services of Each Meeting Led by Miss Trotter

BRIDGETOWN, N. S., Oct. 25.—The seventh annual convention of the Maritime Religious Education Council concluded its sessions here during the week-end in the United Baptist church. The convention was opened on Tuesday evening by devotional service led by Miss Marjorie Trotter, Maritime Girls' Work Secretary, who chose as the theme for all the devotional services, Thanksgiving.

Dr. Robertson delivered a very fine address, taking for his subject, "Through the Week for Juniors." Through the week program, he stated, should co-relate to all other church activities and should conflict with no other organization. There is a three year program provided for Juniors, with a place for games, stories, worship periods and memory work periods.

EDUCATION PROBLEMS. Robert Davids, then gave his concluding convention address, taking as his subject: "The Educational Program of the Local Church." There is but one method, said the speaker, of producing the results we want, and that is the educational method. Education is the fundamental principle of progress. The church must learn to capitalize and use the law of growth.

MEMORIAL SERVICE. A memorial service for the late President, George D. Wallace, was held. The speaker was W. B. Tuttle, who for years had been an intimate friend of the deceased, and who spoke in touching and eloquent words of the noble life and character of the late Mr. Wallace.

REPORTS GIVEN. The denominational secretaries gave their reports: Baptist, Rev. A. Gibson; United Church, Rev. F. M. Milligan; Departmental secretaries: Children's Work, Miss Annie E. Harris; girls' work, Miss Marjorie Trotter; boys' work, Rev. W. C. Machum. The reports were all very gratifying, and showed substantial gains in all lines of activity.

At the conclusion of the reports the convention assembled for denominational rallies, where matters of importance to each denomination were discussed.

At the evening service Miss Trotter gave the concluding service, of the series of devotional services which she conducted through the conference. The final one was on the theme: "Thanksgiving for the Conquering Christ." Dr. A. L. Huddleston was the speaker for the evening service on the subject: "The Forces that Mould Life."

The speaker said what you get out of life is determined by what you are. No matter what our physical environment may be, if we have the right ideals we will be able to surmount all difficulties.

OPENING DAY SERVICE. On the opening day W. E. McMullen, acting president of the convention, gave a brief address. During the course of his remarks he named some of the reasons why he believed in the Sunday school. First, because it is the nursery of the church, supplying workers for the next generation. Secondly, the Sunday school introduces a great many persons to a knowledge of the Bible, and very often it leads young people into the kingdom. His Worship Mayor E. A. Hicks, on behalf of the people of Bridgetown, extended a most hearty welcome to the convention. Canon Underwood, of St. James' Anglican church bade the delegates a kindly welcome in the name of the clergy and churches of Bridgetown. Acknowledgements were made by Rev. G. M. Young, of Stellarton.

DR. J. C. ROBERTSON. The main address of the evening was delivered by Dr. J. C. Robertson, General Secretary, Board of Religious Education, United Church of Canada. Dr. Robertson took for his subject: "Underlying Principles of Religious Education" or "Some very important things which we ought to remember in the religious education of our boys and girls." Unless we can present the gospel of Jesus Christ so that our boys and girls are drawn to that life, and want to live that kind of a life, we have failed, he stated. The obligation is on us today more urgently than ever before, that this gospel teaching be so attractive, and so winsome, that they may see in Jesus Christ the altogether lovely, and that they may have that something that will enable them to stand the testing time. We teach religion most of all by the kind of lives we live, he added.

GIVE 'EM TIME AND THEY'LL BOTH GROW

"You're a heck of a looking lizard," says the big chap on the right. "And you're a daisy looking duck," replies the little fellow. But they're both wrong. One's a baby alligator, the other a baby ostrich, both just two weeks old. They live on a farm in California.

GRAND FALLS WORK.

A report from Grand Falls indicates that the contractors for the hydro development there are making good progress in their work. Tunnelling has been carried on to a penetration of 100 feet, and construction of the coffer dam, which will extend half way across the river on the site of the main dam, is well advanced. Half of the main dam will be built from one shore, and the work completed from the other shore.

IRMA DUMBBELL says she wouldn't mind serving on a jury if the panels were decorated in the new pastel shades.

THESE men are great jolliers. No doubt Lot went around afterward telling everybody that his wife was the salt of the earth.

CORINTO, Nicaragua, Oct. 26.—Resumption of civil warfare in Nicaragua is expected as a consequence of the abrupt termination yesterday of the peace conference held here under the aegis of the United States authorities. Liberal leaders declare that Dr. Juan Bautista Sacasa, who was deposed as vice-president of Nicaragua by Congress at the instigation of de facto President Chamorro, will proceed from Guatemala, his present refuge to Puerto Cabezas and then to Bragman's bluff, which is in possession of the Liberal revolutionaries, and declare himself constitutional president of Nicaragua.

Mexico, Guatemala and Costa Rica, the Liberals assert, will immediately recognize Dr. Bautista Sacasa.

Let your Hearing be your Guide

FROM time to time new words are added to our vocabulary. Some of them have an immense significance. "Harmonated" is one of those words.

FADA "HARMONATED" RECEPTION describes the greatest advance ever made in radio reproduction.

Three years ago all radio engineers knew they had a problem to solve. The public wanted clearer and more realistic reproduction. After two years of the most painstaking and costly radio research ever attempted, FADA engineers have attained it. Absolute realism in radio reception is now an accomplished fact.

Starting with the tubes as a foundation they built each and every unit to harmonize with these tubes, adding, as a final link the new FADA Cone Speaker, (in the enclosed speaker sets the new "Harmonated" speaker unit). FADA "HARMONATED" RECEPTION was the outcome. In tone, in clarity, in long distance and in faithfulness it is a revelation. Its freedom from interference and overlapping will give you an entirely new idea of radio reception.
