BANQUET VERY HAPPY EVENT

Portland United Sunday School Classes Dine and Elect

Address on Loyalty is Given by Rev. J. Dunlop—Officers Chosen

Last evening an enthusiastic gathering took place in the Y. M. A. hall of the Portland United Sunday school building, when about 40 young men of two organized classes sat down to a beautifully decorated and heavily-laden table on the occasion of their reunion banquet. Harold Taylor was master of ceremonies. The programme commenced with the singing of O Canada. Stanley Goodwin presided at the piano, and Harold Vincent led the choruses.

A toast to the King was proposed by Stanley Goodwin in the usual manner. Our Sunday School was proposed by Harold Chohan, and responded to by Samuel A. Kirk, superintendent, who spoke of his delight in having the boys so loyal to the school, and asked that they give the other departments of church endeavor a support somewhat commensurate with what they had given and were giving the Sunday school.

SPRAYS ON LOYALTY. This was followed by the address of the evening, which was delivered by Rev. James Dunlop, of Central Baptist church, who spoke on Loyalty—loyalty to Christ; next, loyalty to the church, loyalty to the community and the class.

OFFICERS CHOSEN. The officers elected for the year for the two classes were: Knights of the Round Table (senior young men)—President, Fred Stubbs; vice-president, Harold Taylor; secretary, Russell McConnell; treasurer, Walter Webster; next, loyalty to the church, loyalty to the community and the class.

Challenge Class (junior young men)—President, Fred Yeomans; vice-president, Gerald Williams; secretary-treasurer, Douglas Barbary; teacher, Stanley Irvine.

Mrs. Taylor had charge of the catering and was efficiently assisted by the Misses Nan McEwen, Gertrude Harper, Emma Blizard, Mary Kirk and Mabel Logan. Votes of thanks were presented to the ladies for the excellent dinner provided, to the entertainers and entertainers for their contribution to the evening's success.

TWENTY LEADERS ARE TAKING COURSE

Winter Training for Scout Workers is Begun in G.W.V.A. Hall

The winter training course for scout leaders of Saint John commenced last evening in the G. W. V. A. hall, Wellington Row, with 20 leaders in attendance. The program of lectures and games was carried out with the greatest interest. A feature of the course is that the leaders of several of the newest troops are attending. The course, which is Part 3A of the Canadian Scout course, is based on the tenderfoot tests and will give the leaders practical knowledge in the management of their troops, as the meetings are conducted as regular scout meetings with the leaders formed into patrols, with patrol leaders and seconds, and the patrol record books as in the ordinary troops. The patrol names chosen last evening were the Crows, Owls and Wild Ducks. The course is in charge of the assistant district commissioner, the scoutmaster of the Young Judaea's troop, and the district secretary. It will continue this week to Nov. 20, when a break of one week will be made, and the course will be resumed on Nov. 30 and end on December 4. In order to qualify for a certificate the candidates must have all lectures complete, and must display the ability to play the game of scouts; that is to say, they will be judged by the spirit shown during the course. The scout spirit is the great aim of the course, and when it is successful in arousing this in a leader the object of the course is realized.

Mrs. Margaret Thornton Passed Away Today

The death of Mrs. Margaret Thornton occurred this morning at the home of her nephew, R. P. Colgan, 182 Rockwood Road, after a brief illness. Mrs. Thornton was the widow of Captain James Thornton of the Standard Oil Company and was a highly esteemed resident of Saint John for many years. Some years ago she removed to Brooklyn, New York, where she lived with her sister, Mrs. Bridget Boden, until recently, when she returned to her native city. A wide circle of friends will regret to hear of her death and she will be held in kindly memory by many. She is survived by her sister, Mrs. Bridget Boden of Brooklyn, nieces and nephews in New York and Saint John. The late Mrs. David Colgan was a sister of Mrs. Thornton.

Season's Work on Streets About Done

Commissioner Frink said this morning that work on the streets had been about completed for the season. A crew of men were now engaged in grading First street and some work was being done on Pokioik Road but these were the only two jobs under way at present.

HALF SUM

A fine of $5 was imposed on Nathan Jacobson today for neglecting to stop his auto when ordered to do so by Traffic Officer Young at the foot of King street at 3:15 p. m. on Nov. 14. Mr. Jacobson said he did not see the signal and added that he had always obeyed the officers carefully. The magistrate said that he was only imposing half the usual penalty on account of the driver's previous good record in traffic matters.

LOAD NEXT WEEK AT PETTINGILL

Potato Steamer to Get Cargo on Eastern Side of Harbor.

Shed Handed Over Tomorrow—Increased Sailings Makes West Side Changes

Commissioner Bullock said this morning that work on the frost-proof potato warehouse, new pier wharf, was about completed and the shed would be handed over to the Canadian National Railway authorities tomorrow. The dredge Leacock's is now engaged in removing the rock which has been blasted out at the Pettingill wharf and the first potato steamer to load on the east side of the harbor is expected here next week and will load at Pettingill.

CATTLE SHED EXTENSION.

Commissioner Bullock has received a communication from Hon. W. C. Co. under date of November 13, stating that the order for the extension of the cattle sheds in West Saint John passed by the council on November 12 but at the time of writing the governor-general had not given his approval. Up to noon today there had not been received at the office of Alex. Gray, the engineer in charge of the harbor, any notice of the tender for this work having been awarded.

BUSINESS MAKES CHANGES.

The number of new lines coming to the port this winter had made necessary some changes in the offices in the West Side sheds, Commissioner Bullock said this morning. The office room in No. 4 shed had been enlarged and quarters would be found there for the officials of the Cunard and Donaldson lines and the office of the dock police has been moved to No. 5 shed.

SCOTTISH BALLADS

TOPIC OF LECTURE

Rev. G. G. D. Kilpatrick Gives Excellent Address in St. David's Auditorium

Under the auspices of the Men's Association of St. David's Church, Rev. G. G. D. Kilpatrick, B. A., of Chalmers United Church, Ottawa, delivered a fascinating lecture last evening on Scottish Ballads, in the auditorium of the church. A large audience listened with delight to the gifted speaker as he told of the ministry of Soliman, the place that it had in the life of the people, expressing in their ballads their joys and their sadness, in a manner peculiar to the dwellers in the glens and on the hills and islands of Auld Scotia. Mr. Kilpatrick is possessed of a rich tenor voice, which gave a sympathetic understanding to his audience of the beauty of the numbers which he sang. These included "The Bonnie Earl o' Moray," "Lord Ronald," "Erickay Love Lilt" and "Sea Sorrow." Mrs. Blanche Ferris sang "Mary of Argyle" and "Scots Wha Hae," in excellent voice. J. Bayard Currie was at the piano, accompanying both soloists in his usual artistic and sympathetic manner.

COLLECTIONS LARGE

This lecture was a fitting termination of the anniversary services of St. David's, which have been very successfully carried out. The special collection amounted to more than $1,200, which, with the amount collected by the Men's Association of the church, makes the total somewhat over $2,200. At 6:30 o'clock the session and trustees of St. David's gave a banquet for the men and young men of the church to meet Rev. Mr. Kilpatrick. Rev. Hugh Miller, minister, presided, and a rousing sing-song was led by Ronald Shaw. The ladies of the church served the banquet. The entertainment was most enjoyable.
