RECENT DEATHS

Miss Margaret R. Campbell. The death occurred yesterday morning at her home in Fairville of Miss Margaret R. Campbell, beloved wife of the late John and Mary Perry of Fairville. She leaves to mourn her twentieth year of her age and was the second daughter of Mrs. William Hamilton, of Harding street, by the latter's first husband, Edwin J. Campbell. She leaves her mother, step-father, a brother, Daniel, and a sister, Miss Beattie, at home. The young woman had many friends who will regret sincerely her death. The funeral will be held on Thursday at 2:30 p. m. from her late home in Harding street, Fairville.

Mrs. Howard M. Flewelling. The death occurred in this city yesterday of Nellie, beloved wife of Howard M. Flewelling, and daughter of the late John and Mary Perry of Fairville. She leaves to mourn her husband, three small children, four brothers and one sister. The funeral arrangements are not yet completed.

Bliss M. Harney. Friends in this city will regret to learn of the death of Bliss M. Harney formerly of this city, which occurred at the home of his sister, Mrs. William Harney, Somerville (Mass.), on Monday, July 19. He was the youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Michael Harney of this city, and is survived by two brothers, William of Providence (R.I.), and Percy of Somerville, also two sisters, Mrs. John Belenber and Miss Adele Harney, both of Somerville. The funeral will take place Thursday morning from the home of his sister to St. Ann's church for requiem high mass.

Mrs. John McDonald died yesterday at her home in Fredericton after a lingering illness, at the age of sixty years. She leaves her husband, two sons, one daughter, three sisters and three brothers.

BOLT KILLS YOUTH. Lightning Paralyzes His Companion and Igites His Lead. Haverhill, Mass., July 21—Milton Woodman, nineteen, who was killed, and Irving Atwood, who was riding with him on a load of hay, was paralyzed in one arm and leg, by lightning here.

The hay caught fire and Atwood, unable to move, called for help. Walter Canney, a farm hand, who also had been knocked down while working in a field near by, rescued him. SMALL MAJORITY AGAINST ACCEPTING OFFER MADE WINNIPEG STREET RY. MEN Winnipeg, July 20.—By a majority of eight, and with about 800 men not voting, the Winnipeg street car men voted against accepting the ten per cent. increase in wages offered them by a board of arbitration. The vote was 481 against 473 in favor. Another ballot is to be taken this week on the question of striking to enforce a demand for a 20 per cent. wage increase.
