GERMAN STATE TRIBUNAL TO INQUIRE INTO AND FIX RESPONSIBILITY FOR WAR

Berlin, July 31.—(By the Associated Press)—A state tribunal is to inquire into and fix the responsibility for the war. It will be composed of the supreme court of the empire, whose president will be chairman. He will be assisted by the president of the military court and the judges of the Prussian, Bavarian and Hanseatic courts. In addition, ten assistant judges will be elected, five by the National Assembly and five by a committee of the German states. The tribunal will be empowered to pronounce only upon the question of guilt; it will not impose punishment.

RECENT DEATHS
Miss Mary Florence McGill.
The many friends of Miss Florence McGill will regret to learn of her death, which occurred yesterday at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick McGill, 327 Charlotte street. She has been in failing health for some time. She is survived by her parents and by two sisters, Rose and Alice. The funeral will be held on Friday morning at 8.45 o'clock, old time, to the church of St. John the Baptist for requiem high mass.

At Pine Glen, Albert county, on Sunday afternoon, David Crossman died. He had been living with his son, Merritt Crossman, at Pine Glen, since the death of his wife. He was seventy-four years of age, and leaves five sons and one daughter. The sons are Wilfred and Walter, of Bangor, Me.; Millidge, of Moncton; Earle, of Gungahville, and Merritt, of Pine Glen. The daughter is Effie, wife of Albert Crossman, of Niagara, Albert county.

Alfred J. Heath, who has been in the service of the C. P. R. for more than thirty years, is dead in Montreal. He came here in 1889. J. Anson Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer; Walter H. Long, first lord of the admiralty; Sir Eric Geddes, minister without portfolio, and Sir Auckland Geddes, minister for national service and reconstruction, for alleged libel.

William W. Goodall of Moncton, formerly a stationery engineer in the C. N. R. shops, died in Moncton yesterday.

STATESMEN SUE LONDON PAPER

London Daily News Apologizes to Chamberlain, Long, Sir Eric and Sir Auckland Geddes

London, July 31.—Writs were issued yesterday against the London Daily News on behalf of J. Anson Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer; Walter H. Long, first lord of the admiralty; Sir Eric Geddes, minister without portfolio, and Sir Auckland Geddes, minister for national service and reconstruction, for alleged libel.

The specifications of the alleged libel concern comments on charges made by the Weekly Nation that the statesmen possessed shares in various Russian mining and development companies, some of which were purchased since the armistice with the Teutonic allies was concluded and therefore while Great Britain was hostile to Russia.

The Daily News today prints an apology to those suing and says that its investigation has proven its imputations to be baseless.

REPORTS TO SOVEREIGN GRAND ORANGE LODGE

Initiations and Reinstatements 10,058; Deaths During the Year 2,069

Ottawa, July 31.—At yesterday afternoon's session of the Sovereign Grand Orange Lodge reports from various grand officers were received, the most important being that of Wm. Lee of Toronto, grand secretary. During the year thirty-one new primary lodges, two district lodges, and one county lodge were installed. No fewer than 1,607 new members were initiated and 1,151 reinstated. During the year 2,069 deaths were recorded.

The grand treasurer, Isaac Crawley, reported $96,343 had been paid to widows and orphans and other beneficiaries; since 1881, $1,940,000. The reserve fund is $147,386 and the loss through the war was $54,400.

An address of welcome was presented by the five worshipful mistresses of the L. O. B. A. The grand lodge gave them a royal welcome.

FORMER CHANCELLOR MCKENNA GIVES UP THE POLITICAL LIFE

London, July 31.—Reginald McKenna, former chancellor, has been elected chairman of the London City and Midland in succession to the late Sir Edward Holden. Mr. McKenna has decided to abandon politics and has withdrawn his candidacy for the seat in Pontypool.

SECRET MOVEMENT IN BRITISH HOUSE TO HOLD LIQUOR REGULATIONS

London, July 31.—The Daily Mail says that in connection with the prohibition campaign in England, the members of parliament who sympathize with it will conduct an energetic secret movement in parliament to maintain the existing liquor control regulations established during the war and especially the restricted hours of sale.

The paper asserts that these members are trying to persuade Premier Lloyd George to receive a secret deputation.

LOCAL NEWS

It was reported yesterday that plans are in progress for the erection of a modern theatre on the site of Gen Theatre in Waterloo street, destroyed by fire some months ago.

The admiralty has announced that the Prince of Wales will sail for Canada in the Renown and will transfer on arrival in Canadian waters to the H. M. S. Dragon.

TALK OF WAR IN TELEPHONE RATES

Washington, D. C., July 31.—Government control of telegraph and telephone properties will end at midnight tonight. A rate war between the telegraph companies is viewed in some quarters as a possibility. Telegraph rates were increased apparently 20 per cent last March to meet increased salaries of operators and other employees and rising cost of materials.
